A medical officer determined that you have been exposed to a contagious disease. A representative of the State of Alaska or a local municipality asked the court for an order to test, examine, or screen you for the disease. The court issued this order on _____. The order requires you to undergo this testing, examination, or screening.

If you object to the court order, simply check the box below and return this form to the court.

☐ I object to the court order requiring me to undergo testing, examination, or screening. I want a hearing where I can ask the judge to cancel (vacate) the order.

PLEASE NOTE: This request form may not be filed through the Court's electronic filing system (TrueFiling). It may be filed by U.S. mail or in person, or by fax or HIPAA-compliant email as permitted by the local court. For specific addresses, fax numbers, and filing information, please see the court directory at http://www.courts.alaska.gov/courtdir/index.htm.

If the judge checked the box in section 3 on the order you received, you may file this objection after hours. Follow the instructions on the order to do so.
