NOTICE TO CREDITORS

[The personal representative must publish a notice to creditors once a week for three weeks in a row in a newspaper commonly read in the judicial district in which you filed the probate. The newspapers charge a fee for publication. You must file Form P-342, Affidavit of Publication, showing you met the publication requirement. Generally, creditors have four months after the date of first publication in which to file their claims. Actual notice (as opposed to notice by publication in a newspaper) may be required for a reasonably known creditor's claim.]

You are notified that the court appointed _____ as personal representative of this estate. All persons having claims against the person who died are required to present their claims within four months after the date of the first publication of this notice or the claims will be forever barred.
