Uniform Report for June 2024

- Subrecipients of FTA funds must submit a semi-annual Uniform Report to the Alaska DOT&PF Civil Rights Office biannually.
- Failure to submit comprehensive contracting data related to the Disadvantaged Business Enterprise (DBE) program may lead to noncompliance with Part 26 standards.
- ✘ • For this UR only 18 of 20 Subrecipients provided information for the Uniform Report.

- The overarching objective of the Uniform Report is to capture and document information regarding the current actual payments made to DBEs for the work performed on ongoing federally-assisted contracts. These payments provide a snapshot of the utilization of DBEs in projects funded by the FTA.
- FTA Subrecipients play a vital role in upholding the integrity of the DBE program by diligently submitting accurate and timely reports, thereby contributing to the overall success of federally-assisted transportation initiatives.
