

South Carolina Department of Social Services
SOUTH CAROLINA COMBINED APPLICATION PROJECT (SCCAP) RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

PRIVACY ACT STATEMENT

Federal and State laws and regulations limit the use of confidential information concerning applicants and recipients of economic and medical assistance programs to the purposes directly related to the administration of these programs.

SOCIAL SECURITY NUMBER

Social Security numbers will be used to check identity to prevent duplicate participation and to facilitate making mass changes. They will also be used in computer matching and program review or audits to make sure you are eligible for assistance.

Public Law 97-98 governing the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) requires that in order to participate in and receive benefits from SNAP, a Social Security number (SSN) must be provided or application made for each person for whom benefits are requested.

Information obtained may affect your eligibility and level of benefits. Inaccurate or false information may result in criminal or civil action or administrative claims for fraudulent participation in SNAP.

PENALTY WARNINGS

If you are found guilty of buying or selling firearms, ammunition or explosives with SNAP benefits, you will never be able to get SNAP benefits again.

If you are found guilty of buying or selling illegal drugs with SNAP benefits, you will not be able to get SNAP benefits for 12 months for the first offense and permanently for the second offense.

- Do not give false, incorrect or incomplete information.
- Do not trade, sell or alter SNAP benefits or Electronic Benefit Transfer (EBT) cards.
- Do not buy ineligible items such as alcoholic beverages or tobacco with SNAP benefits.
- Do not use your EBT card to pay for food charged to a credit account.
- Do not use other people's EBT card or SNAP benefits.

If you break any of these rules on purpose, you may not be able to get any more SNAP benefits for a period of one year to permanently and may be fined up to $250,000 or imprisoned up to twenty years or both for violations of $5,000 or greater and would be subject to prosecution under other applicable Federal and State laws. A court can also bar an individual for an additional 18 months from the Program. If you receive SNAP benefits, any or all of your statements, written or oral, are subject to investigation. Your SNAP benefits may be terminated if you fail to cooperate in the investigations.

CHANGES

- You must report all changes to the Social Security Office according to their requirements. Failure to do so is considered withholding information and will permit the Department to recover any benefits paid in error..
- You must report to the Department when you win lottery or gambling winnings equal to or greater than $3500 from a single game before taxes or other withholdings. This change must be reported by the tenth day of the month after the month of the change.

If you need further assistance, or for more information on how to file a complaint or request a fair hearing, you may call the SCCAP toll free number 1-888-898-0055.

In accordance with Federal law and U.S. Department of Agriculture policy, this institution is prohibited from discriminating on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, age, religion, political beliefs or disability.

To file a complaint of discrimination, write USDA, Director, Office of Adjudication, 1400 Independence Avenue, SW, Washington, DC 20250-9410 or call toll free (866) 632-9992 (voice). Individuals who are hearing impaired or have speech disabilities may contact USDA through the Federal Relay Service at (800) 877-8339; or (800) 845-6136 (Spanish). USDA is an equal opportunity provider and employer.

You may also file a complaint of discrimination by contacting DSS. Write DSS Office of Civil Rights, P.O. Box 1520, Columbia, SC 29202-1520; or call 1-800-311-7220. TTY 1-800-311-7219.