What is the Faith-Based Initiative?

DSS recognizes that we cannot meet all the needs of our clients and communities. The faith-based initiative is our effort to match individuals and faith-based institutions who feel called to serve their neighbors with people who need help.

What does DSS do?

The mission of the South Carolina Department of Social Services is:

- To ensure the health and safety of children and adults who cannot protect themselves;
- To help people in need of food assistance and temporary financial assistance while transitioning into employment.

This is done by providing the following services:

- Human Services
 - ▲ Adult Protective Services
 - ▲ Child Protective Services
 - ▲ Foster Care
 - ▲ Adoptions
- Economic Services
 - ▲ Temporary Assistance to Needy Families (TANF), South Carolina's welfare-to-work program.
 - ▲ Food Assistance Services
 - Food stamp program, commodity programs, child and adult food program.
- Child Support Enforcement

What can I do to help?

The opportunities to help those served by DSS may be different in each county and community. There are, however, certain needs that are statewide, such as:

- Become or support a resource family (foster or adoptive).
- Start or support a food pantry.
- Start or support an after-school feeding program or a summer feeding program.
- Provide transportation assistance to welfare-to-work clients (TANF).
- Help parents on welfare gain training and valuable work experiences so they can support their families.
- Provide support to a vulnerable adult so that they may remain in their own home.
- Help us spread the word about the needs and/or successes in your community.

Call your local DSS county office to find out what volunteer opportunities are available. Their numbers are listed on the back panel of this brochure. Be sure to let them know you're calling about the Faith-Based Initiative.

The Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended:

This law, and other state and federal laws, insures that people in the United States have equal treatment, rights and opportunities no matter what their race, color, or national origin. This law prohibits discrimination in programs paid for with federal money.
