OTHER MAJOR POSTSEASON GAMES

There was a proliferation of postseason benefit games specially scheduled at the conclusion of the regular season during the Great Depression (principally in 1931) to raise money for relief of the unemployed in response to the President's Committee on Mobilization of Relief Resources and for other charitable causes.

The exact number of these games is unknown, but it is estimated that more than 100 college games were played nationwide during this period, often irrespective of the competing teams' records.

Most notable among these postseason games were the Tennessee-New York University game of 1931 and the Army-Navy contests of 1930 and 1931 (the two academies had severed athletics relations during 1928-31 and did not meet in regular-season play). All three games were played before huge crowds in New York City's Yankee Stadium.

Following is a list of the principal postseason benefit and charity games involving at least one major college. Not included (nor included in all-time team won-lost records) are several special feature, same-day double-header tournaments in 1931 in which four participating teams were paired to play halves or modified quarters.

ALL-TIME BOWL-GAMES WON LOST RECORDS

This list includes all bowls played by a current major team, providing its opponent was classified as a major that season or it was a major team then. The list excludes games in which a home team served as a predetermined, pre-season host regardless of its record and/or games scheduled before the season, thus eliminating the old Pineapple, Glass and Palm Festival. Following is the alphabetical list showing the record of each current major team in all major bowls.

TEAM-BY-TEAM & COACH-BY-COACH MAJOR BOWL WON-LOST RECORDS

Listed below are the Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) teams that have participated in major bowl games (the term "major bowl" is defined above the alphabetical list of team bowl records). The teams are listed alphabetically, with each coach listed along with the month and year the game was played, and team's all-time bowl-game record. After the FBS list is a group of teams that played in a major bowl game or games but are no longer classified as FBS.

#Beginning in 1995-96, tied bowl games were allowed to use a tiebreaker system.

BOWL LONGEST PLAYS

Only official records after 1937 are included. Prior records are included if able to be substantiated. Each team's score is in parentheses after the team name. Totals for each team in both-team records are in brackets after the team's score. The year listed is the actual (calendar) year the game was played; the date is included if the bowl was played twice (i.e., January and December) during one calendar year. The list also includes discontinued bowls, marked with (D). Bowls are listed by the name of the bowl at the time it was played.

Prior records are included if able to be substantiated. Each team's score is in parentheses after the team name. The year listed is the actual (calendar) year the game was played; the date is included if the bowl was played twice (i.e., January and December) during one calendar year. The list also includes discontinued bowls, marked with (D). Bowls are listed by the name of the bowl at the time it was played.

ALL-TIME BOWL COACHING HISTORY

A total of 650 coaches have head-coached in history's major bowl games (the term "major bowl" is defined above the alphabetical list of team bowl records). Below is an alphabetical list of all 650 bowl coaches, with their alma mater and year, their birth date, and their game-by-game bowl records, with name and date of each bowl, opponent, final score (own score first) and opposing coach (in parentheses). A handful coached service teams or colleges never in the major category but are included because they coached against a major team in a major bowl.

#Team's participation was later vacated by the NCAA Committee on Infractions or by NCAA executive action and is not included in the coach's win-loss record.

HEISMAN TROPHY WINNERS IN BOWL GAMES

YEAR-BY-YEAR BOWL RESULTS FOR HEISMAN WINNERS

(Includes bowl games immediately after awarding of Heisman Trophy)

Of the 81 winners of the 82 Heisman Trophies (Archie Griffin won twice), 56 played in bowl games after they received their prize (Griffin played in bowl games both years). Of those 56 players, 27 were on the winning team in the bowl. Marcus Mariota and Derrick Henry played in two bowl games after winning the Heisman with College Football National Championship occurring after the other bowl games.

Houston's Andre Ware is the only Heisman recipient to miss a bowl date since 1969. The Cougars were on probation during the 1989 season and were ineligible for selection to a bowl. Before that lapse, Oklahoma's Steve Owens in 1969 was the last Heisman awardee not to participate in a bowl game.

Only three of the first 22 Heisman Trophy winners played in bowl games after receiving the award—TCU's Davey O'Brien in 1938, Georgia's Frank Sinkwich in 1942 and SMU's Doak Walker in 1948.

BOWL GAMES AND THE NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP

How the bowl games determined the national champion from 1965 to present. Year listed is the football season before the bowl games.)

Note: The national champion was selected before the bowl games as follows: Associated Press (1936-64 and 1966-67); United Press International (1950-73); Football Writers Association of America (1954); and National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame (1959-70).

1965 The Associated Press (AP) selected Alabama as national champion after it defeated Nebraska, 39-28, in the Orange Bowl January 1, 1966.

1968 AP selected Ohio State as national champion after it defeated Southern California, 27-16, in the Rose Bowl January 1, 1969.

1969 AP selected Texas as national champion after it defeated Notre Dame, 21-17, in the Cotton Bowl January 1, 1970.

1970 AP selected Nebraska as national champion after it defeated LSU, 17-12, in the Orange Bowl January 1, 1971.

1971 AP selected Nebraska as national champion after it defeated Alabama, 38-6, in the Orange Bowl January 1, 1972.

1972 AP selected Southern California as national champion after it defeated Ohio State, 42-17, in the Rose Bowl January 1, 1973.

1973 AP selected Notre Dame as national champion after it defeated Alabama, 24-23, in the Sugar Bowl December 31, 1973.

Beginning in 1974, all four of the national polls waited until after the bowl-game results before selecting a national champion. The following list shows how the bowl games figured in the final national championship polls for AP and UPI:

1974 First year of the agreement between the American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) and the UPI Board of Coaches to declare any teams on NCAA probation ineligible for the poll. AP—Oklahoma (11-0-0) did not participate in a bowl game because of NCAA probation. UPI—Southern California (10-1-1) defeated Ohio State, 18-17, in the Rose Bowl January 1, 1975.

1975 AP and UPI both selected Oklahoma (11-1-0). Coach Barry Switzer's Sooners defeated Michigan, 14-6, in the Orange Bowl January 1, 1976. Ohio State had led the AP poll for nine consecutive weeks until a 23-10 loss to UCLA in the Rose Bowl January 1, 1976. Oklahoma had led the AP poll for the first four weeks of the year.

1976 AP and UPI both selected Tony Dorsett-led Pittsburgh (12-0-0). Pittsburgh whipped Georgia, 27-3, in the Sugar Bowl January 1, 1977. Pittsburgh took over the No. 1 position from Michigan in the ninth week of the season en route to an undefeated year.

1977 AP and UPI were in agreement again, picking Notre Dame as national titlist. The Irish beat previously undefeated and top-ranked Texas, 38-10, in the Cotton Bowl January 2, 1978. Notre Dame was the sixth team to be ranked No. 1 during the 1977 season in the AP poll.

1978 This was the last time until the 1991 season that the two polls split on a national champion, with AP selecting Alabama (11-1-0) and UPI going for Southern California (12-1-0). Alabama, ranked No. 2 in the AP poll, upset No. 1 Penn State, 14-7, in the Sugar Bowl January 1, 1979. Alabama had been ranked No. 1 in the first two weeks of the season until a 24-14 loss to Southern California.

1979 Unbeaten Alabama (12-0-0) was the unanimous choice of both polls. Bear Bryant's Tide whipped Arkansas easily, 24-9, in the Sugar Bowl January 1, 1980, to claim the title.

1980 Georgia made it three No. 1's in a row for the Southeastern

Conference with an undefeated season (12-0-0) to take the top spot in both polls. Vince Dooley's Bulldogs downed Notre Dame, 17-10, behind freshman phenom Herschel Walker in the Sugar Bowl January 1, 1981.

1981 Both polls selected unbeaten Clemson (12-0-0). The Tigers gave coach Danny Ford the first Clemson national football championship with a 22-15 victory over Nebraska in the Orange Bowl January 1, 1982. Clemson did not take over the AP No. 1 slot until the next-to-last poll of the year.

1982 AP and UPI both selected Penn State (11-1-0). The Nittany Lions were No. 2 in the AP poll but knocked off No. 1 Georgia, 27-23, in the Sugar Bowl January 1, 1983. Georgia had led the AP poll for the final five weeks of the season.

1983 AP and UPI had no choice but to select Miami (Florida) as the unanimous champion after the No. 2 Hurricanes downed No. 1 Nebraska, 31-30, in the Orange Bowl January 2, 1984. Many observers felt this may have been the most exciting Orange Bowl ever played as the Cornhuskers failed on a two-point conversion attempt with 48 seconds remaining. Nebraska had led the AP poll since the first week of the season.

1984 Unknown and a victim of the Mountain time zone, BYU (13-0-0) overcame many obstacles to ascend to No. 1 in both polls. Coach LaVell Edwards' Cougars downed Michigan, 24-17, in the Holiday Bowl December 21, 1984. BYU took over the top spot in the AP poll with three weeks left in the season after four other teams came and went as the top-rated team.

1985 Oklahoma (11-1-0) returned as the unanimous choice of both polls. Barry Switzer's Sooners knocked off top-rated Penn State, 25-10, in the Orange Bowl January 1, 1986, to claim the national title.

1986 Penn State (12-0-0) had to battle top-rated Miami (Florida) in the Fiesta Bowl to take the top slot in both polls. Joe Paterno's No. 2 Nittany Lions upset the Hurricanes, 14-10, January 2, 1987, to claim the championship. Miami (Florida) had been ranked No. 1 for the final 10 weeks of the season.

1987 Miami (Florida) (12-0-0) bounced back to a similar scenario as Jimmy Johnson's Hurricanes played underdog and finished ranked first in both polls. The No. 2 Hurricanes beat No. 1-ranked Oklahoma, 20-14, in the Orange Bowl January 1, 1988. The Sooners had been the top-rated AP team for 13 of the season's 15 polls.

1988 Notre Dame (12-0-0) finished as the top team in both polls and gave the Fiesta Bowl its second national title game in three seasons. Lou Holtz's Irish whipped West Virginia, 34-21, January 2, 1989, to claim their eighth AP title. Notre Dame took over the top spot in the poll from UCLA in the ninth week of the season.

1989 Miami (Florida) (11-1-0) claimed its second national title in three years in both polls. The Hurricanes downed Alabama, 33-25, in the Sugar Bowl January 1, 1990, while No. 1-ranked Colorado lost to Notre Dame, 21-6, in the Orange Bowl to clear the way. Notre Dame led the AP poll for 12 of the 15 weeks.

1990 Colorado (11-1-0) and Georgia Tech (11-0-1) split the polls for the first time since 1978 with the Buffs taking the AP vote and the Jackets the UPI. Colorado bounced back from a disappointing 1989 title march to edge Notre Dame, 10-9, in the Orange Bowl January 1, 1991. Georgia Tech had little trouble with Nebraska, 45-21, in the Florida Citrus Bowl January 1, 1991, to finish as Division I-A's only undefeated team.

1991 Miami (Florida) (12-0-0) and Washington (12-0-0) kept Division I-A playoff talk alive with a split in the national polls for the second consecutive year. The Hurricanes took the AP vote, while the Huskies took both the USA Today/CNN and UPI polls. If either had stumbled in a bowl, then the other would have been a unanimous selection. However, Washington drubbed Michigan, 34-14, in the Rose Bowl, and Miami (Florida) had little trouble shutting out Nebraska, 22-0, in the Orange Bowl later that evening.

1992 No. 2 Alabama (13-0-0) turned in a magnificent performance in the Sugar Bowl by upsetting No. 1 Miami (Florida), 34-13, in a game dominated by the Crimson Tide. It marked the first year of the bowl coalition, and the bowlmeisters managed to match the top two teams for the national championship. It also marked the 17th time that a No. 1 team in the AP poll was knocked off in a bowl game since 1951. Alabama was named No. 1 in all polls after the January 1, 1993, matchup.

1993 No. 1 Florida State downed No. 2 Nebraska, 18-16, in the Orange Bowl to become a unanimous national champion. Notre Dame, winner over Texas A&M (24-21) in the Cotton Bowl, wanted to claim the title after beating the Seminoles in the regular season. But a late-season loss to Boston College cost the Irish in the polls. Florida State was No. 1 in all polls after the bowls.

1994 No. 1 Nebraska halted a seven-game bowl losing streak by posting a come-from-behind victory, 24-17, over Miami (Florida) in the Orange Bowl to cap a perfect 13-0 season with the national title. No. 2 Penn State, also undefeated at 12-0, downed Oregon, 38-20, in the Rose Bowl but had to settle for second place in the polls. Nebraska was No. 1 in all polls after the bowls.

1995 Another unanimous year for undefeated and No. 1 Nebraska. The Cornhuskers posted back-to-back national titles with a convincing 62-24 victory over No. 2 Florida in the bowl alliance's Fiesta Bowl matchup.

1996 No. 3 Florida took the national crown in all polls after meeting and beating No. 1 Florida State, 52-20, in the bowl alliance matchup in the Sugar Bowl. Just a month earlier, the Seminoles had knocked off No. 1 Florida and the Gators returned the favor. No. 2 Arizona State was defeated, 20-17, by Ohio State in the nonalliance Rose Bowl and dropped out of national championship consideration.

1997 In the last year before the bowl alliance would include the Rose Bowl, the two top-ranked teams — Michigan and Nebraska — never met for the title. Michigan, the final No. 1 in the Associated Press media poll, defeated Washington State, 21-16, in the Rose Bowl, while Nebraska, No. 1 in the final USA Today/ESPN coaches' poll, rolled over Tennessee, 42-17, in the Orange Bowl. Both teams were rewarded with a piece of the national title. It was the fourth time in the 1990s that the national champion was either shared or unclear.

1998 In the first year of the Bowl Championship Series (BCS), the No. 1 and No. 2 teams (Tennessee and Florida State, respectively) met for the title in the Fiesta. The BCS rankings were a compilation of the Associated Press, USA Today/ESPN, Seattle Times, New York Times and Sagarian polls, and schedule strength, to arrive at the top two teams. Tennessee defeated Florida State, 23-16, and was a unanimous No. 1 in all polls.

1999 In the second year of the BCS, No. 1 Florida State met No. 2 Virginia Tech in the Sugar Bowl. Florida State downed the Hokies, 46-29, to capture the title. The Seminoles, ranked No. 1 all year, went wire-to-wire in most polls for its second national prize in the 1990s.

2000 The third year of the BCS again matched the No. 1 and No. 2 teams (Oklahoma and Florida State, respectively), this time in the Orange Bowl. Oklahoma used team speed and a stingy defense to down the Seminoles, 13-2, holding Heisman Trophy winner Chris Weinke without a touchdown. The Sooners were a unanimous pick in all polls.

2001 In the fourth year of the BCS, Miami (Florida) became the only undefeated team in the country (12-0) and claimed the mythical title by defeating Nebraska, 37-14, in the Rose Bowl. Miami was ranked No. 1 in the AP poll but Nebraska, No. 4 in the poll, was selected for the championship game over No. 2 Oregon. Heisman Trophy winner Eric Crouch was a member of the losing Cornhusker squad, while coach Larry Coker led Miami to the title in his first season as a head coach.

2002 The fifth year of the BCS ratings matched the No. 1 and No. 2 teams [Miami (Florida) and Ohio State] in the Fiesta Bowl and it turned out to be one of the most exciting college football bowls/poll championships. No. 2 Ohio State prevailed, 31-24, after two overtime periods over No. 1 Miami (Florida), a team that had been ranked No. 1 since the first week of the season. Jim Tressel coached the Buckeyes to their first title since 1968 in only his second year at the helm. He also had four Division I-AA national titles at Youngstown State.

2003 The sixth year of the BCS brought nothing but questions as the No. 1 and No. 2 teams in both major polls failed to meet in the title game. Southern California and LSU were No. 1 and No. 2, respectively, in both polls (media and coaches'), but No. 3 Oklahoma held onto its No. 1 spot in the BCS final ratings despite being trounced in the Big 12 Conference championship game. The BCS matched Oklahoma and No. 2 LSU in the Sugar Bowl for the BCS title, while No. 1 Southern California played in the Rose Bowl against Michigan. LSU beat Oklahoma, 21-14, to claim the BCS title and the No. 1 slot in the USA Today/ESPN poll, but Southern California downed Michigan, 28-14, to secure its No. 1 ranking in the Associated Press final poll. That meant another split national championship and grumbling began again for a better system to determine a clear-cut national titlist.

2004 In the seventh year of the BCS, five teams — Auburn, Boise State, Oklahoma, Southern California and Utah — finished the regular season undefeated. Southern California and Oklahoma ended the season ranked No. 1 and No. 2, respectively, in the BCS standings and in both polls, earning spots in the BCS national championship game, this time the Orange Bowl. Southern California won, 55-19, to take the national championship outright and secure its second straight season with at least a portion of the title. Note: Southern California later had the final two victories of the 2004 season vacated by the NCAA Committee on Infractions and the BCS vacated the Trojans' Orange Bowl participation and BCS title.

2005 In the eighth year of the BCS, only two teams – Southern California and Texas – finished the regular season undefeated. Southern California and Texas ended the season ranked No. 1 and No. 2, respectively, in the BCS standings and in both polls, earning spots in the BCS national championship game. Texas rallied and scored with 18 seconds left to beat Southern California, 41-38, in the Rose Bowl to take the national championship outright. Note: Southern California later had the all victories from the 2005 season vacated by the NCAA Committee on Infractions and the BCS vacated the Trojans' Rose Bowl participation.

2006 In the ninth year of the BCS, just two teams – Boise State and Ohio State – again finished the regular season with perfect records. However, it was Florida that was second in both the BCS standings and the polls, earning the Gators a trip to meet Ohio State in the BCS national championship game. Florida swamped the Buckeyes in the newly formed BCS National Championship Game, 41-14, to take the national title.

2007 It was a year of upsets as four different schools, including one team three different times, held the No. 1 spot throughout the year, before LSU claimed the 2007 AP championship. Southern California was the preseason favorite and ran with the top spot the first four weeks before handing it off to the Tigers. It only took two weeks before LSU moved over for Ohio State. The Buckeyes hung on to the top spot for four weeks before giving it back to LSU. The Tigers would fall two weeks later, and this time the Tigers of Missouri would jump to the No. 1 spot for the first time since 1960. It only lasted one week as Ohio State jumped back into the driver's seat. For the second straight year, the Buckeyes lost in the national championship game, and LSU, for the third and final time, elevated itself to the top spot with a 38-24 win.

2008 For the second time in three years, the Florida Gators earned a spot in the BCS National Championship Game, ranking second in the BCS standings but first in the AP poll. Oklahoma's potent offense, which scored 60 or more points in its last five games, helped lead the Sooners to the top spot in the BCS entering the bowl season. Against Florida, though, Oklahoma managed only two scores as the Gators claimed a national championship for the second time in three years. The Sooners dropped to fifth in the final polls with Utah (the nation's only undefeated team), Southern California and Texas all leaping Oklahoma in both AP and USA Today final polls.

2009 Five teams — Alabama, Boise State, Cincinnati, Texas and TCU — all entered the bowl season with undefeated records, earning spots in BCS games, but it was Alabama and Texas that earned spots in the BCS National Championship game. Alabama scored 13 fourth-quarter points to stretch a three-point lead to a 37-21 victory and claim the Crimson Tide's first national championship since 1992. Texas finished second in the AP and USA Today polls, followed in both polls by Florida, Boise State (the only other team to finish the season undefeated) and Ohio State.

2010 Auburn and Oregon earned spots in the BCS National Championship game, leaving fellow undefeated TCU in the Rose Bowl. In the title game, Auburn led much of the second half until a touchdown and two-point conversion by the Ducks tied the score at 19-19 with 2:33 remaining. On the second play of the ensuing drive, Auburn RB Michael Dyer got loose for a 37-yard gain to the Oregon 23-yard-line. Later in the drive, Dyer added a 16-yard run to get the ball inside the two-yard-line and Tiger kicker Wes Byrum nailed a 19-yard field goal attempt as time expired to give Auburn its first national championship.

2011 It was a Southeastern Conference rematch in the championship game between LSU and Alabama. With a smothering display of old-school football, the No. 2 Crimson Tide blew out the top-ranked Tigers, 21-0, in the BCS championship game. Jeremy Shelley tied a bowl record with five field goals and the defense did the rest, posting the first shutout in the 14-year history of the BCS. It was the Tide's second BCS title in three years.

2012 Alabama and coach Nick Saban won their second straight national title and third in four years as the Crimson Tide rolled over top-ranked Notre Dame, 42-14, in the BCS championship game. Game offensive MVP Eddie Lacy ran for one touchdown and caught another to help Alabama to a 28-0 halftime lead. Lacy finished with 140 yards rushing while quarterback AJ McCarron completed 20 of 28 passes for 264 yards and four touchdowns.

2013 Florida St., led by Heisman Trophy winner Jameis Winston, completed their undefeated season by defeating SEC Champion Auburn, 34-31, in the BCS championship game. After Auburn took a 31-27 lead with 1:19 remaining in the 4th quarter, Winston drove the Seminoles back down the field, finding Kelvin Benjamin in the endzone with 13 seconds left to clinch the title. Winston completed 20 of 35 passes for 237 yards and 2 touchdowns and was named the game's offensive MVP.

2014 In the first year of the College Football Playoff, Ohio State took advantage of being the fourth-seeded team by upsetting Alabama, 42-35 in the Sugar Bowl and Oregon, 42-20, in the first-ever CFP National Championship. Running back Ezekiel Elliott dominated the ground attack for the Buckeyes. In the two bowl games, Elliott had 476 yards rushing and six TDs. Meanwhile, Cardale Jones, the third quarterback of the season for Ohio State, was efficient in the two games throwing for 485 yards and two TDs.

2015 In year two of the College Football Playoff, top-seed Clemson beat Oklahoma 37-17 in the Orange Bowl, while No. 2 seed Alabama shutout Michigan State in the Cotton Bowl to set up a match-up of the top two teams. In the National Championship game, Derrick Henry ran for three touchdowns, O.J. Howard had five catches for 208 yards, including three catches of 50 yards or more and Alabama held off Clemson, 45-40, to win the national title. Clemson's Deshaun Watson passed for 405 yards and four touchdowns to lead the Tigers.

2016 The College Football Playoff again matched the top four teams to determine the National Champion. Top-seed Alabama defeated No. 4 Washington, 24-7, in the Peach Bowl while No. 3 Clemson shut out Ohio State, 31-0, to setup a rematch of the previous season's CFP Championship Game. In the Championship Game, Clemson scored two fourth quarter TDs to overcome a 10-point deficit and grap a 28-24 lead with 4:38 to play. But Crimson Tide QB Jalen Hurts scored on a 30-yard run to give Alabama a 31-28 lead with 2:07 remaining. Clemson QB Deshaun Watson, who would be the game's offensive MVP, completed 6-of-7 passes on the final drive including a two-yard pass to Hunter Renfrow with one second remaining to give the Tigers a 35-31 win.

2017 In the fourth year of the College Football Playoff, two of the three games went to overtime. The Rose Bowl was the first semifinal and No. 3 Georgia jumped out to a 31-17 halftime lead over No. 2 Oklahoma. But the Sooners stormed back in the second half and held a seven-point lead with less than a minute to go before a Bulldog's late TD tied the game and send it to overtime. After both teams kicked field goals in the first overtime, Georgia blocked an Oklahoma field goal attempt in the second OT and Sony Michel rushed in from 27 yards to send Georgia to the championship game with a 54-48 win. In the Sugar Bowl No. 4 Alabama used a dominating defense to upset No. 1 Clemson, 24-6. In the championship game, Georgia took a 13-0 lead by halftime and had a 20-7 lead with 6:52 left in the third quarter. But Alabama back-up quarterback Tua Tagovailoa helped the Crimson Tide score 13 unanswered points to force overtime. After a Georgia field goal, Tagovailoa hig DeVonta Smith on a 41-yard touchdown pass to allow Alabama to clinch its second CFP Championship in three years.

2018 The fifth year of the College Football Playoff saw three high scoring affairs. The first semifinal was the Cotton Bowl, pairing No. 2 Clemson against No. 3 Notre Dame. After a 3-3 first quarter, Clemson racked up another 20 points off three passing touchdowns from Clemson QB Trevor Lawrence to go up 23-3 in the first half. The Tigers added the only rushing touchdown of the game in the third quarter, resulting in a 30-3 final over the Fighting Irish. In the Orange Bowl, No. 1 Alabama outlasted No. 4 Oklahoma to propel the Crimson Tide to the championship game for the fourth year in a row. Alabama jumped out to a 21-0 lead in the first quarter and took a 31-10 lead into the break. The Sooners rallied in the third quarter, scoring 10 unanswered points, but couldn't outscore the Tide in the fourth, with Alabama winning 45-34. In a class of No. 1 and No. 2, it was an even game in the first quarter, with Clemson leading 14-13. However, Clemson outscored the Tide 30-3 in the remaining three quarters to capture its second CFP Championship in three years.

2019 In the sixth year of the College Football Playoff, LSU efficiently dispatched its competition for its fourth national championship. The first semifinal, the Peach Bowl, featured a matchup between No. 1 LSU and No. 4 Oklahoma. LSU got off to a roaring start, putting up 21 points in the first quarter and 28 points in the second quarter, leading the Sooners 49-14 at the half. The Tigers' QB, Joe Burrow, finished the game with eight TDs (7 passing, 1 rushing) in a winning 63-28 effort. Meanwhile, the Fiesta Bowl between No. 2 Ohio St. and No. 3 Clemson was much closer affair. After the first quarter, the Buckeyes led 10-0, but the Tigers scored 14 points in the second to pull within two points at the half. It was a tight second half, but Clemson's 15 second half points were too much for the Buckeyes and Clemson earned a trip back to the championship game with a 29-23 victory. In a matchup of No. 1 and No. 3, it started off evenly, with the two teams tied at 7-7. However, Burrow began to heat up and helped the Tigers to add 21 additional points in the second quarter and another 14 in the second half. Clemson struggled to match the pace and LSU captured its fourth national championship with a 42-25 win.

2020 The seventh year of the College Football Playoff saw Alabama capture its third title in the CFP era in a methodical fashion. The top-ranked Crimson Tide took on the No. 4 Notre Dame Irish in the Rose Bowl, the first of two semifinal games in the 2020-21 season. Alabama QB Mac Jones was dangerously accurate, completing 25 of his 30 passes, with 7 of those going to WR DeVonta Smith for 130 yards and three of Jones's four TDs. The Irish were down 14-0 in the first quarter and couldn't muster a big enough comeback, losing 14-31. In the other semifinal game, No. 2 Ohio St. put on an offensive showcase against No. 2 Clemson in the Sugar Bowl. After a high scoring 14-14 first quarter, the Buckeyes outscored the Tigers 35-14 the rest of the way, behind QB Justin Fields's six passing touchdowns. The national championship, played in front of just over 14,000 fans due to the COVID-19 pandemic, saw Alabama's passing offense explode behind the Crimson Tide's 28-point second quarter. Alabama's Jones completed 80% of his passes, throwing five touchdowns, three of which went to his top target, Smith. Smith has 12 catches for 215 yards. Alabama took an 18 point lead into halftime and the Buckeyes' seven points in the second half was far short of what they needed to topple the top-ranked Crimson Tide.

2021 In the eighth year of the College Football Playoff, Georgia secured its first title in the CFP era in dominant fashion. The first semifinal matchup featured No. 1 Alabama and No. 4 Cincinnati in the Cotton Bowl. The Crimson Tide jumped to a 17-3 lead after the first half off a pair of touchdown passes from QB Bryce Young. The Crimson Tide defense totaled eight tackles for loss and racked up six sacks to help Alabama to secure a 27-6 win over Cincinnati. No. 2 Michigan and No. 3 Georgia squared off in the Orange Bowl. The Bulldogs got off to a roaring start with 27 first half points while the defense held Michigan to three points. Georgia's QB Stetson Bennett finished the game with three TDs and 313 passing to help the Bulldogs secure a 34-11 victory and spot in the national championship. In the national championship, the defensively oriented teams gave the 68,311 fans a Georgia led 9-6 first half following five total FGs. After 43 minutes of play, Georgia punched the game's first touchdown. In the final quarter, Alabama took an 18-13 lead after the Crimson Tide's only touchdown of the night, but Georgia answered. A pair of TDs from Bennett and a late 79-yard interception return for a touchdown propelled Georgia to a 33-18 win to capture its third national championship.

2022 The ninth College Football Playoff saw Georgia clinch its second consecutive title with an overpowering national championship performance. The opening game between No. 2 Michigan and No. 3 TCU in the Sugar Bowl had the Horned Frogs jump to a 21-6 lead in the first half. Michigan clawed back into contention and scored 39 points in the second half, but TCU's defense was able to stunt a final minute drive and secure a 51-45 victory. The Peach Bowl saw another nailbiting contest between No. 1 Georgia and No. 4 Ohio State. The Buckeyes clung to a 28-24 lead after the first half and extended it to 38-24 headed into the fourth quarter. Georgia QB Stetson Bennett led a fourth quarter comeback effort that featured two touchdown passes and a field goal. Bennett threw the go-ahead TD pass with 54 seconds remaining and the Georgia defense held off Ohio State's offense to complete the comeback and a clinch a spot in the championship game off a 42-41 win. Georgia completed its perfect season in dominant fashion. TCU trailed 10-7 late in the first quarter, but a Bennett-led Georgia offense scored 55 unanswered points and secured a 65-7 victory to give the Bulldogs their second consecutive national championship. Georgia is the first program to repeat as national champions in the CFP era.

2023 In the tenth College Football Playoff, Michigan sealed its first CFP era title with a methodical national championship performance. The opening game of the playoff between No. 1 Michigan and No. 4 Alabama in the Rose Bowl had the Wolverines and Crimson Tide trade blows throughout. Alabama took the game's largest lead of the night of 20-13 with 4:41 remaining in the fourth quarter, but the Wolverines were able to tie it back up at 20-20 and force overtime. After RB Blake Corum scored a touchdown on the first drive overtime, Michigan was able to stifle the Alabama offense on the ensuing possession and clinch a 27-20 victory. The Sugar Bowl saw another nailbiting contest between No. 2 Washington and No. 3 Texas. A tightly contested first half saw the Longhorns score a touchdown with 17 seconds to go and send the game into halftime tied at 21 apiece. Washington rattled off 13 unanswered points out of the half and held off a late Texas surge to secure a 37-31 victory and berth to the CFP National Championship. Michigan completed its perfect 15-0 season in calculated fashion. In the first quarter, Michigan RB Donovan Edwards tallied a 41-yard rushing touchdown, only to be outdone by another 46-yard touchdown rush and give the Wolverines a 14-3 lead. The Huskies were able to get the game within 7 points, but back-to-back rushing touchdowns from offensive MVP, Corum in the fourth quarter sealed a 34-13 Michigan win.

BOWL RESULTS OF TEAMS RANKED IN THE ASSOCIATED PRESS POLL

The bowls and national polls have been perpetually linked since 1936, when The Associated Press introduced its weekly college football poll. This is a list of the key bowl games as they related to the AP poll since 1936 (with pertinent references made to other polls where applicable).

YEAR-BY-YEAR BOWL FACTS

(A note about bowl-game dates: Traditionally, bowl games have been played on January 1, but as more bowl games joined the holiday lineup, schedule adjustments were made whereby some bowl games are now played as early as mid-December. In the interest of avoiding confusion, all years referred to in bowl records are the actual calendar year in which the bowl game was played.)

1917 Coach Hugo Bezdek led the first of three teams to the Rose Bowl from 1917 to 1923. His Oregon team beat Penn, 14-0, in 1917; his Mare Island squad defeated Camp Lewis, 19-7, in 1918; and his Penn State team lost to Southern California, 14-3, in 1923. In his 1923 trip with the Nittany Lions, Bezdek almost came to blows with Southern California coach Elmer "Gloomy Gus" Henderson because Penn State did not arrive for the game until an hour after the scheduled kickoff time. Henderson accused Bezdek of not taking the field until the hot California sun had gone down to give his winterized Easterners an advantage.

1919 George Halas (yes, "Papa Bear") was the player of the game for Great Lakes Naval Training Station in Chicago as the Sailors shut out Mare Island, 17-0, in another of the wartime Rose Bowls.

1923 The first Rose Bowl game actually played in the stadium in Pasadena saw Southern California defeat Penn State, 14-3.

1926 Johnny Mack Brown, one of Hollywood's most famous movie cowboys, also was one of college football's most exciting players at Alabama. He was selected player of the game for the Rose Bowl in the Crimson Tide's 20-19 victory over Washington.

1927 The Rose Bowl becomes the first coast-to-coast radio broadcast of a sporting event.

1929 The Rose Bowl game became one of the most famous in bowl history because of California player Roy Riegels' now-legendary wrong-way run. Early in the second quarter, with each team just changing possessions, Georgia Tech was on its own 20. Tech halfback Stumpy Thompson broke for a seven-yard run and fumbled, and Riegels picked up the ball, momentarily headed for the Tech goal, then reversed his field and started running the wrong way. Teammate Benny Lom tried to stop him and finally did on the California one-yard line, where the dazed Riegels was pounced on by a group of Tech tacklers. Lom went back to punt on the next play and the kick was blocked out of the end zone for a S, which decided the contest, eventually won by Georgia Tech, 8-7.

1938 The first Orange Bowl played in Miami's new stadium, which seated 22,000 at the time, saw Auburn edge Michigan State, 6-0. Also, in the second annual Cotton Bowl, Colorado's do-it-all standout Byron "Whizzer" White, the Rhodes Scholar and future U.S. Supreme Court justice, passed for one score and returned a pass interception for another, but the Buffs lost to Rice, 28-14.

1941 On December 6, 1941, Hawaii defeated Willamette, 20-6, but a second Rainbows' postseason game, scheduled with San Jose State for the next week, was canceled after the attack on Pearl Harbor.

1942 You would think a team making only one first down and gaining only 75 yards to its opponent's 309 yards could not come out of a game a 29-21 victor, but it happened in the Cotton Bowl as Alabama downed Texas A&M. The Tide intercepted seven of A&M's 42 passes and recovered five Aggie fumbles. Also, the Rose Bowl was moved for one year to Durham, NC, because of wartime considerations that precluded large gatherings on the West Coast, and Oregon State downed Duke, 20-16.

1946 The first and only bowl game decided after time expired was the Orange Bowl when Miami (Florida) downed Holy Cross, 13-6. Time expired as Miami halfback Al Hudson returned an 89-yard intercepted pass for the deciding score.

1949 A Pacific Coast team had never been allowed to play in a major bowl other than the Rose Bowl, but the conference leadership let Oregon play in the Cotton Bowl against SMU. Doak Walker and Kyle Rote led SMU to a 20-13 victory over the Ducks and quarterback Norm Van Brocklin. John McKay, later the head coach at Southern California, also was on the Oregon roster.

1953 The Rose, Cotton, Sugar and Orange Bowls were televised nationally for the first time.

1954 Dicky Maegle of Rice may be the best-remembered bowl player, not because of his 265 yards rushing and three touchdowns vs. Alabama in 1954, but because of what happened on a 95-yard scoring run. Alabama's Tommy Lewis became infamous by coming off the bench to tackle Maegle in the Cotton Bowl, won by Rice, 28-6.

1960 In one of those pupil-vs.-teacher battles, former Georgia Tech player and assistant coach Frank Broyles led his Arkansas Razorbacks to a 14-7 Gator Bowl victory over his former coach, Bobby Dodd, and the Yellow Jackets.

1962 Oregon State quarterback Terry Baker turned in the longest run in bowl history with a 99-yard scamper to down Villanova, 6-0, in the Liberty Bowl. Baker, an outstanding athlete, became the only Heisman Trophy winner to play in an NCAA Final Four basketball game later that academic year (1963).

1964 Utah and West Virginia became the first teams to play a major bowl game indoors when they met in the Atlantic City Convention Hall. Utah won the Liberty Bowl, 32-6, beneath the bright indoor lights.

1965 The first Orange Bowl played under the lights in Miami saw Texas stun national champion Alabama and quarterback Joe Namath, 21-17.

1968 It was the student beating the teacher in the Cotton Bowl as Texas A&M head coach Gene Stallings saw his Aggies hold on for a 20-16 victory over Alabama and legendary head coach Paul "Bear" Bryant. Stallings had played (at Texas A&M) and coached (at Alabama) under Bryant. The "Bear" met Stallings at midfield after the contest and lifted the 6-foot-3 Aggie coach up in admiration. Also, the Astro-Bluebonnet Bowl (also known as the Bluebonnet Bowl) became the first bowl game to be played in a domed stadium as the Astrodome served as the site of the December 31, 1968, game between SMU (28) and Oklahoma (27).

1970 Three of the four legendary Four Horsemen of Notre Dame came to Dallas to watch the Fighting Irish drop a 21-17 Cotton Bowl game to Texas. The only other time Notre Dame had played in a bowl game was the 1925 Rose Bowl, when the Four Horsemen led the Irish to a 27-10 victory over Stanford.

1971 Notre Dame snapped the second-longest winning streak going into a bowl game by halting Texas' 30-game string, 24-11, in the Cotton Bowl. In 1951, Kentucky had stopped Oklahoma's 31-game streak in the Sugar Bowl, 13-7.

1976 Archie Griffin started his fourth straight Rose Bowl for Ohio State (1973-76), totaling 412 yards on 79 carries in the four games. The Buckeyes, under legendary head coach Woody Hayes, won only the 1974 contest, but Griffin is the only player to win two Heisman Trophies (1974-75).

1989 Texas Tech's James Gray set a college bowl record with 280 yards rushing (broken by Georgia Tech's P.J. Daniels with 307 yards in the 2004 Humanitarian Bowl) in the All-American Bowl against Duke. BYU's Ty Detmer set the bowl passing mark with 576 yards (tied by Marshall's Byron Leftwich in the 2001 GMAC Bowl) versus Penn State in the Holiday Bowl.

HULA BOWL

Format: From 1947 to 1950, the College All-Stars played the Hawaii All-Stars. Beginning in 1951, the Hawaiian team was augmented by players from the NFL. This format was changed to an all-collegiate contest—first between the East and West, then between North and South (in 1963), and then back to East and West in 1974 and 1995-96. In 1994, the format went to a collection of collegiate all-stars versus a collection of Hawaiian former collegiate players. In 1997, it reverted back to North-South. In 2005, it returned to an East-West format. Teams were broken into players from the western United States (named Kai) against eastern United States (named Aina). After 2008, the game remained dormant until its revival in 2020. In 2020, the format went to a collection of college football players from all divisions, along with international players. The teams were divided into Kai and Aina.

Playing Sites: Honolulu Stadium (1960-74); Aloha Stadium (1975-97, 2006-08); War Memorial (1998-05)
