APPLYING FOR DOJ FUNDING TIP SERIES

Are You Ready To Apply?

Submitting an application for funding with the Department of Justice (DOJ) is a two-part process. An applicant first submits an abbreviated application in Grants.gov. The full application is then completed in JustGrants, DOJ's grants management system. The DOJ Application Submission Checklist is an important resource for applicants, providing steps and tips to assist applicants in completing DOJ applications. The checklist also links users to specific locations to learn more and get assistance.

Specifically, the checklist describes how to —

- confirm entity registration information;
- apply in Grants.gov;
- onboard as either a new or existing entity in JustGrants;
- complete an application in JustGrants; and
- review, certify, and submit an application.

Review the DOJ Application Submission Checklist today to learn more about the application submission process.
