ANNOUNCEMENTS

Reminders on Submitting Federal Financial Reports and Performance Reports in JustGrants

For many award recipients, one or more Federal Financial Reports (FFRs) or Performance Reports will be due at the end of January 2022. Here are a few tips and reminders about due dates and what to expect when submitting FFRs or Performance Reports.

Federal Financial Reports (FFRs)

- For recipients with awards that continue to be active with start dates before January 1, 2022, the next quarterly FFR covers the period October – December 2021 and is due on or before January 30, 2022. FFRs not submitted by this due date will result in suspended access to funds.
- For recipients of new awards with start dates on or after January 1, 2022, the first FFR will cover the period January – March 2022 and is due on or before April 30, 2022.
- For recipients with awards that are past their project period end date and the final reports have not been submitted, the final FFR is due on or before 120 days after the project period end date. Example: For awards that ended on September 30, 2021, the final FFR (and other closeout actions) are due on or before January 28, 2022. FFRs not submitted by this due date will result in suspended access to funds.
- The only role within JustGrants that can submit an FFR is the Financial Manager. Individuals with that role in JustGrants should review the Submitting Financial Reports Job Aid Reference Guide for guidance on how to complete and submit FFRs in JustGrants.

Progress Reports

- The frequency and due dates of progress reporting vary across programs and awards, but can be found in JustGrants. However, if there is any concern or question about whether the information displayed is correct for a given award, please do not hesitate to contact your Grant Manager or JustGrants Support. For OJP and COPS award recipients, contact JustGrants.Support@ojp.usdoj.gov, and for OVW recipients, contact OVW.JustGrantsSupport@usdoj.gov.
