December 2005

Dear fellow Kentuckians:

The Kentucky Homeplace program is happy to share with you the successes of this past quarter. Family health care advisors have participated in community service projects and local events in addition to their regular assignment, assisting clients with their needs.

The entire quarterly report is posted on the UK Center for Rural Health's Web page for your review. Simply click on <http://www.mc.uky.edu/ruralhealth/>, go to the right side of the page and click on Kentucky Homeplace, and then scroll to the bottom of the page and click on (October - December 2005 Quarterly Report). If you still wish to have a printed copy, please call 1-800-851-7512 or email me at fjfeltn@uky.edu.

Sincerely,

Fran Feltner, B.S.N.
Director, Lay Health Worker Division

REGIONAL SUMMARIES

October – December 2005

NORTHEAST REGION – Bath, Boyd, Carter, Elliott, Greenup, Johnson, Lawrence, Magoffin, Martin, Menifee, Montgomery, Morgan and Rowan counties; Regional Coordinator, Deanna Jessie.

Our family health care advisors served 1,752 total clients this quarter. A total of 33,501 services were provided to these clients. $1,881,033 of free medication was provided to our clients in this service area.

Regional Office

Deanna Jessie attended a regional coordinator meeting in Hazard. She attended the annual FIVCO (Boyd, Carter, Greenup, Elliott and Lawrence counties) Area Development meeting. Deanna traveled to all Homeplace offices within this region with Ms. Fran Feltner doing annual equipment audits. She attended two meetings with the Carter County Lions Club president, Mr. Jack Strother. They will be working very closely with the needy over age 65 in acquiring eyeglasses. Deanna is working with area dentists to try and find other avenues for service for the needy.

Bath, Menifee, and Montgomery counties

Teresa Judd participated in the weekly New Hope Clinic's Diabetic Day. She attended the American Cancer Society training.

Boyd County

Kim Sansom participated in the American Cancer Society Training.

Carter County

Anita Salyers held three Carter County Community Health Days. She worked with Our Lady of Bellefonte Mammography Unit. Anita met with Mr. Jack Strother, Jr. concerning plans to work with the Carter County Lions Club. She attended the American Cancer Society training. Anita assisted with the annual Christmas drive for the needy in order to help out clients with holiday presents.

Elliott and Morgan counties

Judy attended the local Medicare D training with the local pharmacy.

Lawrence County

Elizabeth Kelly participated in the American Cancer Society training.

Rowan County

Family health care advisors from Carter, Elliott and Bath counties are trying to serve the people of this county.

SOUTH CENTRAL REGION – Allen, Barren, Butler, Edmonson, Hart, Logan, Metcalfe, Monroe, Simpson, and Warren counties; Regional Coordinator Beth Wells.

All South Central staff attended the Women’s Day Health Conference in Bowling Green and enjoyed an educational day of learning about women’s health issues and networking with health care providers from the region.

Kentucky Homeplace and the Barren River District Health Department-Kentucky Diabetes Prevention and Control Program co-sponsored an educational program titled Learn How to Manage Your Diabetes in November. Approximately 18 Kentucky Homeplace clients from Allen, Barren, Metcalfe and Monroe counties attended the four-hour seminar to learn how to manage their diabetes. Those attending were provided with excellent information and a question-and-answer session to help them better understand diabetes and prevent possible future complications that may occur with lack of proper understanding and care.

Kentucky Homeplace staff provided grocery/gift baskets to 12 clients during the holidays. The baskets contained groceries and various other personal care items. A Warren County Homemakers organization assisted Velma Koostra and Sharon Cherry with donations of food for the baskets in Warren, Hart and Edmonson counties.

Barren County

Jeanee Williams attended the Barren County Vision meetings and volunteered at the Barren County Safe Kids Coalition Car Seat Check-Up event. She also attended the Women’s Day Health Conference in Bowling Green and assisted with organizing the diabetes education seminar for Kentucky Homeplace clients.

Metcalf and Monroe counties

Janice Compton attended the Monroe County Cancer Coalition meeting and the Women's Day Health Conference in Bowling Green. She also assisted with organizing the diabetes education seminar for Kentucky Homeplace clients.

Edmonson and Hart counties

Sharon Cherry attended the Edmonson and Hart County Vision meetings and the Edmonson County Diabetes Update educational program. She also attended the Women's Day Health Conference in Bowling Green.

Warren County

Velma Koostra attended the Edmonson County Diabetes Update educational program and the Women's Day Health Conference in Bowling Green.

Allen and Simpson counties

Peggy Gillock attended the Women's Day Health Conference in Bowling Green. She also assisted with organizing the diabetes education seminar for Kentucky Homeplace clients.

Butler and Logan counties

Bettie Phelps participated in the Logan County Hospital Health Fair and attended the Women's Day Health Conference in Bowling Green.

SOUTHEAST REGION – Breathitt, Floyd, Knott, Leslie, Letcher, Perry, Pike, Powell, and Wolfe counties; Regional Coordinator Lynn Whitaker.

This quarter our family health care advisors served a total of 1,680 clients and provided 29,051 services. Medication in the amount of $1,934,961 was ordered by the FHCAs in this region. All FHCAs participated in a Medicare Part D computer training held at the Center for Rural Health.

Knott County

Paul Vance attended the Small Hospitals Improvement Program (SHIP) Medicare Workshop at Knott County Human Services building. Paul assisted 180 clients and provided 3,673 services for them.

Floyd County

Gina Bates relocated her office from the Floyd County Health Department to the McDowell Appalachian Regional Healthcare Clinic. She met with a representative from the SHIP program to discuss the new Medicare Part D program. Gina helped provide training on this new program to her co-workers. Gina has been working with the McDowell ARH to provide Homeplace services to their patients. Gina provided 3,435 services to 250 clients in her community.

Perry County

Nancy Combs and Lynn Whitaker attended the Diabetes Expo at the Perry County Extension office. Nancy attended an advisory council meeting at Perry County Central High School. Nancy assisted 123 clients and provided 3,026 services for them.

Pike County

Barbara Justice attended a meeting at the Johns Creek School to discuss Homeplace services. Barbara attended a meeting at the Pike County Health Department to discuss services Homeplace could provide to their patients. Barbara assisted 245 clients and provided 5,328 services for them.

Kristie Childers attended an intragency meeting at the Big Sandy Area Community Action for the Low Income Home Energy Assistance Program (LIHEAP). Kristie worked with Thankful Hearts on Christmas gifts for some Homeplace families and also volunteered her time at a Christmas Giveaway, held by Thankful Hearts on a Saturday. Kristie assisted 120 clients and has provided 2,128 services for them.

Letcher County

Tammie Holbrook met with Argene Jones, representative of the SHIP program regarding the changes involving Medicare Part D. Tammie met with the Department for Community Based Services office about Medicare premium discounts. Tammie also met with a LIHEAP representative to discuss their income guidelines for the new year. Tammie assisted 175 clients and provided 2,682 services for them.

Leslie County

Delana Roberts had three community health days at her Leslie County Homeplace office. Delana assisted 186 clients and provided 2,771 services for them.

Breathitt County

Julia Keene met with the Program Director of LIHEAP and Transportation to discuss the eligibility of clients for the Crisis Program for heat assistance. Julia met with the county coordinator of CSBGW Program to discuss assistance with rent and electric hook-up for clients with disconnect notice and application for home weatherization. Julia assisted 155 clients and provided 2,948 services for them.

Wolfe County

Pollyanna Shouse attended and assisted at a Medicare Part D sign up held by the SHIP Program at the Senior Citizens Building in Wolfe County. Pollyanna participates weekly at a community health day at the Powell County Clinic. Pollyanna assisted 246 clients and provided 3,060 services for them.

SOUTHERN REGION - Bell, Clay, Harlan, Jackson, Knox, Laurel, Lee, Owsley counties; Regional Coordinator Helen Collett.

This quarter our family health care advisors served a total of 1,569 clients, performed 14 home visits, 1,173 client site visits, and provided 27,488 services. Medication in the amount of $3,121,695 was ordered by the FHCAs in this region.

Clay County

This quarter we hired John Howard to fill the vacant FHCA position in Clay County.

The Clay County office participated in a health fair called Fit for the Future at the Senior Citizens Center. In an effort to help our clients better understand Medicare D, we hosted a Medicare D Day for the citizens of Clay County. We had more than 150 participants. A representative from Thompson Drug hosted a Diabetic Day for our clients. On this day, individuals were able to obtain shoes and other needed supplies. If they have Medicare, the representative waived the fee they would normally pay. This was a very successful event. During the Christmas holiday we helped a local food pantry with its giveaway of food and toys.

Harlan County

Shirley Madrey participated in a health fair held by Pathfinders of Harlan. Participants received information about our program and were able to have their weight, blood pressure and body mass checked.

Lee/Owsley counties

Linda Thacker participated in three Medicare D meetings and attended a diabetes meeting.

Knox County

Paul Frederick gave a presentation to the Kentucky Committee for Economic Opportunities Council at their annual staff meeting. He presented our program and services to more than 120 people. Paul assisted with the Clay County and Laurel County's Medicare D days and he attended a presentation by the Good News HealthCare Clinic.

Laurel County

Helen Curry attended an interagency meeting at the Laurel County Extension Office. She also hosted a Medicare D Day.

Bell County

Nancy Brock held three community health days this quarter.
