

PROJECT MUSE®

Index

Published by

Leopold III and the Belgian Royal Question.

Johns Hopkins University Press, 2020.

Project MUSE. <https://dx.doi.org/10.1353/book.71675>.

➔ For additional information about this book

<https://muse.jhu.edu/book/71675>

This work is licensed under a Creative Commons Attribution 4.0 International License.

[136.0.111.243] Project MUSE (2025-03-16 01:31 GMT)

INDEX

- A quand la lumière?* See Larock, Victor
- Albert (king of the Belgians), 1, 8, 15, 22, 48, 50
- Albert, Prince, 158, 202, 208
- Amadeo, Prince, 120
- Anne (queen of England), 10
- Astrid (queen of the Belgians), 123–24, 208
- Attentisme*. See Policy of Laeken
- Austria: political solution compared to Belgium's, 214, 218. See also Leopold III
- Baels, Liliane (Princess de Réthy), 84, 122–25, 155, 158, 205, 208
- Baels, Walter, 84, 124
- Balfour, Lord, 213
- Bank of France, 84
- Banque Nationale*, 2, 23
- Barker, Sir Ernest, 7, 211
- Baudouin, Prince, 1, 158, 202, 204–9, 217
- Belgian Congo, 13, 81, 84, 206–7
- Berchtesgaden. See Leopold III; Hitler
- Berryer, Viscount, 72, 75, 81
- Blanchard, General, 55, 57
- Brown, Robert Duncan, 57
- Buset, Max, 200
- Calui, A. (legionnaire, Légion Wallonie), 172
- Cammaerts, Emile, 2
- Canaris, Constantin, 157
- Capelle, Count, 112, 126, 168–70
- Catholic party: role in Belgian revolution, 13, 14; influence of Rerum Novarum, 16; opposition to conscription, 36; position on royal question, 97; enters coalition with Socialist party, 162; supports consultation, 182–84; reverses reasoning on royal question, 187; votes to end Regency, 201–2; part played in la loi unique, 216–18
- Chamberlain, Neville, 165
- Charles the Bold (duke of Burgundy), 13
- Charles, Prince Regent, 94, 98, 101, 195–96, 199
- Charles V (Holy Roman Emperor), 13
- Chasseurs Ardennais*, 36
- Chatham House, 77, 138
- Churchill, Sir Winston, 52–53, 55
- Communist party, 97, 162, 201–2
- Confédération des Syndicats Chrétiens*, 97
- Conscription, 36, 37, 39, 40
- Consultation, 105, 126, 177, 179, 182–83, 185–91
- Cornélis (governor general, Belgian Congo), 207
- Cornil (attorney-general, Cour de Cassation), 88–89
- Cougnon (adjutant, Légion Wallonie), 172
- Daladier, Edouard, 165
- Davis, Joseph G., 57
- De Becker, Raymond, 112, 169
- de Broqueville, Baron, 36
- de Clercq, Staf, 112
- Degrelle, Léon, 23
- De Kinder, François, 87, 88
- Delacroix, Gaétan, 129
- Delfosse, Antoine, 70, 87
- De Man, Henri, 24, 110–12, 176
- Denis, Henri, 48, 61, 62
- Deportation. See Leopold III
- de Réthy, Princess. See Baels, Liliane

- De Schrijver, Auguste, 87
 de Staercke (Leopold's private secretary), 98n de Termicourt, Hayot, 72
 d'Ursel, Count, 81, 114, 147
 Devèze, Albert, 36, 72, 193
 De Vleeschauwer, Albert, 81, 114, 147, 148. See also Belgian Congo
 Devos, Leopold, 129
 De Vriendt-Coremans law, 17
 de Warnaffe, Du Bus, 126
 de Wiart, Carton, 105, 126
De Wynendale au Reposeir, 177
 Diamant, Alfred, 214
 Duvieusart, Jean, 198, 199, 203
- Eben-Emael, 49–50
 Eden, Anthony, 35
Effacement, 97, 100
 Elections: April, 1939, 27; February, 1946, 128; June, 1949, 180–81; June, 1950, 196–98; March, 1961, 217
 Electoral laws, 14–15, 221
 Elizabeth, Queen Mother, 101, 110
 Entourage. See Leopold III
 Euratom, 210
 European Coal and Steel Community, 210
 European Economic Community, 210
Exclusives, 23
 Eyskens, Gaston, 54, 191, 193, 206
- Fayat, Henri, 185
 Federal Reserve Bank of New York, 84
Fédération Générale du Travail de Belgique (F.G.T.B.), 97, 199, 201, 203, 216
 Fierens, Father (chaplain, Légion Wallonie), 171
 Flandin, Pierre-Etienne, 35
 Foreign Press Corps, 38
 Franco-Belgian treaty (1920), 34, 36
 Franco-British declaration (1937), 41–43, 48
 Frédéricq, Louis: meets with envoys of Government-in-Exile, 72, 81; receives copy of Leopold's Political Testament, 89; accompanies Van Acker on first post-war meeting with Leopold, 98; government's case against, 113; diplomatic note written by, 114, 147–48; resigns, 126; Larock's case against, 168–70
 Free Wallonia, 192
- Gailly, Arthur, 202
 Gamelin, Maurice, 50, 51, 56
 George I (king of England), 11
 George IV (king of England), 11
 George VI (king of England), 69
 German declaration (1937), 41–43
 Gibson, Hugh, 57
 Gillon, Robert, 97, 100
 Goldhammer, Colonel, 149
 Gort, Field Marshal Viscount, 52, 57
 Government-in-Exile: declares Leopold III unable to reign, 70; rejects Leopold's request for carte blanche approval, 72; publishes its official account, 77–78; seeks to treat with the Germans, 80; recognized by the British government, 80; sets up government for the Congo and Ruanda-Urundi, 81; repudiates Jaspard, 82; resigns, 83; re-establishes itself, 83; signs the Washington Declaration, 83; secures funds in New York banks, 84; attempts to contact Leopold III, 86–88; sends letter to Leopold by De Kinder, 92
 Graux, Pierre, 130
 Grisar, William, 55
 Gutt, Camille, 56
- Halifax, Lord, 56
 Hanoverian Dynasty, 10–11
 Himmler, Heinrich, 157
 Hitler, Adolf, 34, 54, 117–19, 148–54, 157
 Hoover, Herbert, 57
 Hussart, Judge, 169
 Huysmans, Camille, 129

- Le Tellier (Belgian ambassador to France), 114
- Liberal party: role in Belgian revolution, 13, 16; replaced by Socialist party as second major party, 15; position on royal question, 97; Socialist party ally on royal question, 176; supports consultation, 182-84; refuses to implement results of consultation, 191; re-enters opposition to Leopold, 194; refuses to vote to end Regency, 201-2; part played in la loi unique, 216-18
- Ligue Démocratique Belge*, 97
- Limoges, 61, 70, 71. See also Government-in-Exile
- Linguistic frontier, 218
- Linguistic split, 17-18, 36, 39
- Lippert (commandant, Légion Wallonie), 173
- Locarno Pact, 33, 34, 36, 38, 41, 42
- Loiseau, Charles, 130
- Loi unique*, 216-18
- Louis XIV, 21
- Marcq, René, 130
- Marie José (princess of Piedmont), 117, 149, 152
- Marriage, second. See Baels, Liliane
- Martens, Doctor, 25
- Meissner (Nazi minister), 119
- Mixed Military Commission, 37, 40
- Moedertaal-Voertaal*. See Linguistic split
- Monarchy (Belgian): concepts of consensus and homogeneity, 8; the king as symbol of unity, 9; compared to the British, 10-11; belated evolution, 12; post-World War I role of Socialist party, 12; royal prerogatives in Constitution, 19-20; roles played by Leopold I, II, and Albert, 21-22; Leopold III's concepts of, 29; Louis Wodon's concepts of, 30-31
- Montgomery, K. G., Field Marshal, 52, 56, 89
- National Confederation of Political Prisoners, 203-4
- National Flemish party, 23, 95
- National Walloon Congress, 192
- New York Court of Appeals, 84
- New York Court of Claims, 84
- Nouveau Journal*, 113, 170
- Orban, Senator, 104
- Pages d'histoire*. See Pierlot, Hubert
- Palacios Costa, Alberto, 80
- Paola Ruffo di Calabria, Princess, 208
- Pappenheim, Lt. Colonel, 136
- Peeters, C. (lieutenant, Légion Wallonie), 172
- Pétain, Henri Philippe, 50, 83
- Phillips, William, 57
- Phillip the Bold (duke of Burgundy), 13
- Pholien, Joseph, 72
- Pierlot, Hubert: mentioned, 24; first becomes prime minister, 25; defends policy of independence-neutrality, 43; calls for British and French aid, 48; meets with Leopold before latter leaves for front, 48; conflict with Leopold takes shape, 60-69; at Limoges, 70-71; appears reconciled with Leopold, 76-78; sends letter to Leopold regarding an armistice, 81; seeks to make contact with Leopold as war ends, 86-88; receives copy of Leopold's Political Testament, 88; seeks judgment of Parliament for wartime behavior of Government-in-Exile, 94; quoted in the Report regarding the constitutional defense of Leopold's military actions, 139-45; resigns, 124; publishes Pages d'histoire, 163
- Pirenne, Jacques, 54, 89, 126, 156, 170
- Policy of Laeken (attentisme), 6, 79, 85, 92, 94-95, 134, 167-68
- Political Testament. See Leopold III

- Poulet, Robert, 112, 113, 170, 172, 173
 Poulet, Mrs. Robert, 113
- Question scolaire*, 14, 16, 210
- Report of the Commission of Information Instituted by His Majesty King Leopold III*. See Leopold III; Spaak, Paul-Henri; Pierlot, Hubert
- Rerum Novarum*, 14, 16
- Revolution of 1830, 12-14
- Rexist party, 23, 95
- Reynaud, Paul, 55, 56, 57
- Rieder, L. (German police officer), 173
- Schmidt, Paul, 117, 148-54
- Servais, Jean, 130
- Socialist party: position on royal question, 6, 97; failure to understand true function of monarchy, 12; enters political scene, 14; opposes conscription, 39; enters coalition with Catholic party, 162; Liberal party ally on royal question, 176; opposes consultation, 184-85; reverses reasoning on royal question, 187; states total opposition to return of Leopold, 193; threatens Catholic party, 199; refuses to vote to end Regency, 201-2; part played in la loi unique, 216-18
- Soir, Le* (under Nazi occupation), 112, 169
- Spaak, Paul-Henri: first becomes prime minister, 24; first resignation, 25; suggests foreign policy change, 38-39; calls policy of independence-neutrality "policy of neutrality," 41; defends policy of independence-neutrality before Socialist party, 42; defends policy of independence-neutrality before Parliament, 42-43; reaffirms government's responsibility for policy of independence-neutrality, 46; praises Leopold's role in policy of independence-neutrality, 46; meets with Leopold before latter leaves for front, 48; conflict with Leopold takes shape, 60-69; sends vote to diplomatic personnel asking for solidarity with Leopold, 76; urges Belgians to close ranks around Leopold, 77-78; praises campaign behavior of Leopold, 78; defends actions of Government-in-Exile during summer of 1940, 82; seeks contact with Leopold as war ends, 86-88; first postwar meeting with Leopold, 98; defends action of Parliament preventing Leopold's return, 104; comments on d'Ursel telegram, 116-17; comments on Leopold's meeting with Hitler, 119; comments on telegram to King of Italy, 120; quoted in Report regarding constitutional defense of Leopold's military actions, 139-45; becomes prime minister, 157; seeks to end dispute with Leopold, 174; meets with Leopold, 177; presents political alternatives to Leopold, 179-80; refuses to soft pedal press attacks on Leopold, 180; appeals to Leopold to abdicate, 194; condemns Leopold, 199; proclaims opposition to Leopold, 202; returns to Belgian political life, 217
- Stuart Dynasty, 10
- Supreme Court of New York, 84
- Théunis, George, 84
- Thierry, Colonel (French communications officer), 57
- Umberto, Prince, 117
- Unionism, 13
- Van Acker, Achille: becomes prime minister, 96; first meets Leopold and agrees to his return to Belgium, 98; opens royal question to parliamentary debate, 105; on Leopold's meeting with Hitler, 117; on Leopold's trips to Austria, 120; on Leopold's deporta-

- Van Acker, Achille (continued) tion, 121; on Leopold's second marriage, 122-23, 206
 Van Cauwelaert, Franz, 98, 100
 Vandenberg, General (Belgian chief of staff), 165
 van der Essen, Léon, 130
 Van der Poorten, Arthur, 61
 Vandervelde, Emile, 24, 41
 van Hoestenbergh, V., 130
 Van Overbergh, Cyrille, 24
 Van Overstraeten, General (Leopold III's aide-de-camp), 136,
 148, 165
 Van Roey, Cardinal Archbishop,
 73, 87, 157, 193
 Van Straelen (director, Royal Museum of Natural History), 121, 156
 van Waeyenbergh, Monseigneur,
 130
 Van Zeeland, Paul, 2, 23, 34, 45, 194
 Vermeire, J. (captain, Légion Wal-lonie), 172
 Versailles Treaty, 34
 Victor Emmanuel (king of Italy),
 119
 Victoria (queen of England), 11
 Von Falkenhausen, Alexander, 149, 158
 Washington Declaration, 83, 93
 Wastiau, R. (lieutenant, Légion Wallonie), 172
 Weemaes, Willie, 126
 Weygand, Maxime, 51, 52, 53, 54,
 57
 Wilhelmina (queen of the Netherlands), 46, 61
 Willem I (king of the Netherlands), 13, 17
 William and Mary (king and queen of England), 10
 Wodon, Louis, 30, 163