Federal Agency Annual EEO Program Management Directive (MD) -715 Report Overview

The fiscal year 2023 (FY23) Federal Agency Annual EEO Status Report (MD-715 Report) was compiled in accordance with the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC) Instructions to Federal Agencies for EEO MD-715.

The MD-715 Report serves two main purposes:

1. Review the Agency's current EEO performance and identify gaps in Agency's operations.
2. Develop plans and strategies for addressing Agency deficiencies, triggers, and barriers of employment to comply with EEO guidelines.

This report contains 10 Parts (labeled A through J), as well as data tables. Each part contains specific information across the agency and completed by different offices to support the Equal Employment Opportunity Program. The Six Essential Elements of a Model EEO Program are assessed and listed below. To ensure compliance, EEO partners and collaborates with several offices to include the Human Capital Office and the General Counsel Office to ensure compliance and promote awareness of the six elements. The six essential elements are identified by letters A thru F:

- A. Demonstrated commitment from agency leadership
- B. Integration of EEO into the agency's strategic mission
- C. Management and program accountability
- D. Proactive prevention of unlawful discrimination
- E. Efficiency
- F. Responsiveness and legal compliance

Parts A-D provide agency specific information. Part E is an executive summary. Part F is the signature page, which signifies the Agency's certification. Part G is a comprehensive assessment checklist. Part H identifies the deficiencies noted in Part G to include the action plans. Part I identifies any barriers. Part J is the Affirmative Action Plan (AAP).

Demographic data in the workforce tables showcase race, national origin, sex, and disability status and is compiled and compared to designated benchmarks. Significant anomalies (triggers) are reviewed to determine their root causes, and if any are determined to be barriers to EEO, plans are developed and executed to eliminate all barriers.

All Federal agencies are required to establish action plans to meet numerical goals for hiring, advancement, and retention of people with disabilities, and to take specific steps that are reasonably designed to achieve those goals. The current goal for people with disabilities is twelve percent (12%) and for people with targeted disabilities is two percent (2%). Part J, the AAP, of the report covers those efforts in greater detail. The AAP assesses data on people with disabilities (PWD) and people with targeted disabilities (PWTD) in comparison to people without disabilities (PWOD).

This report reflects the results of NARA’s efforts throughout FY23. The structure, format, and content of this report are prescribed by the EEOC, including Parts A thru J, data tables A-1 thru B-9, and all supplemental documents (e.g., Reasonable Accommodations procedures, organizational chart, and EEO policy statement).

Of 156 regulatory requirements assessed in Part G of the report, NARA did not comply with 29 requirements leading to agency deficiencies noted in Part H for FY23. Although we noted 29 deficiencies in FY23, some of the prior year deficiencies were corrected. Some deficiencies identified in FY23 have already been corrected in FY24. Below is a scorecard for FY23:

Part E.1 - Executive Summary: Mission

Purpose and Structure of NARA

We drive openness, cultivate public perception, and strengthen our nation’s democracy through public access to high-value government records. Our Mission is to provide public access to Federal Government records in our custody and control. Public access to government records strengthens democracy by allowing Americans to claim their rights to citizenship, hold their government accountable, and understand their history so they can participate more effectively in their government.

See the organization chart below:

NARA's EEO Program

The Office of Equal Employment Opportunity's mission is to provide leadership, direction, and guidance to carry out NARA's equal employment opportunity responsibilities according to Federal laws, statutes, regulations, and policies. The EEO office reports directly to the agency head and partners with General Counsel, Human Capital, and other NARA Offices to support a Model EEO Program.

The vision is to foster a work environment that is free from discrimination and promotes equal, fair, and inclusive employment opportunities for the best talent available regardless of their differences.

EEO is a neutral program that takes on a range of functions within its four main program offices:

Complaints Management Program

- The Complaints Program is designed to provide an effective and efficient process for addressing EEO discrimination complaints and allegations of harassment.
- It is a neutral program that allows employees and applicants for employment who feel that they have been discriminated against on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age, disability, genetic information, or reprisal to file an EEO complaint of discrimination.
- NEEO can enhance the timeliness of complaint tracking with the recently acquired integrated digital platform that centralizes all complaint-related data. This system will allow for real-time updates and tracking, ensuring that complaints are logged immediately upon receipt. Automated notifications and alerts can be set up to inform EEO Specialists of new complaints, impending deadlines, and status changes, thus reducing response time and improving accountability. During FY23 and FY24 NEEO took the proactive step of verifying the accuracy of the electronic files before the system implementation.
- NEEO will continue to improve timeliness by streamlining communication channels between internal stakeholders involved in complaint resolutions, enabling collaboration and information sharing, and eliminating delays caused by fragmented communication.
- NEEO will continue regular training for staff to increase knowledge of the EEO complaint process.

Anti-Harassment Program

- NARA's Anti-Harassment Program is a component designed to address any type of harassment that interferes with, or alters, the condition of an employee's employment and creates a hostile work environment, regardless of the reason.

- The Anti-Harassment Program provides a forum for addressing harassment allegations through an Ad Hoc Committee on Harassment.
- Developed and implemented a follow-up system to ensure timely processing overall.
- Implemented changes to reduce the myriad of allegations. Referring allegations that are conduct-related to the appropriate forum at the onset rather than processing internally.
- Changed committee meeting schedule to streamline the determination process.
- Assisted with development of Anti-Harassment Tracking system to assist in making the overall program more efficient and effective.

Disability Program

- The Disability Program is designed to assist and support the agency with disability employment matters pursuant to the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, as amended, Executive Order 13548, 29 CFR 1614.102, and 29 CFR 1630
- Reasonable Accommodations are changes or modifications in the workplace, to the way things are customarily done in the work environment, or in the application process that enables a person with a disability to have the benefits and privileges of employment
- Provides Sign Language Interpreting and Communication Access Real Time Translation (CART) Services across the agency internally and externally.

Affirmative Employment Program (AEP)

- AEP was established by statute to help address the long-term effects of historic discrimination impacting women, minorities, and individuals with disabilities.
- The AEP works to improve the employment and advancement opportunities for women, minorities, and individuals with disabilities.
- The AEP also completes the MD-715 report, which assesses the model EEO Program across the agency.

Although the EEO Office experienced turnover in FY23, EEO program Specialists have already made great strides in correcting deficiencies in FY24. The EEO program also looks forward to implementing an EEO Tracking system that will service all EEO programs and provide an accurate picture of processing times, timeliness assessments, and trend/demographic information.

The agency has conducted an annual self-assessment of Section 717 and Section 501 programs against the essential elements as prescribed by EEO MD-715. If an essential element was not fully compliant with the standards of EEO MD-715, a further evaluation was conducted and, as appropriate, EEO Plans for Attaining the Essential Elements of a Model EEO Program, are included with this Federal Agency Annual EEO Program Status Report.

The agency has also analyzed its work force profiles and conducted barrier analyses aimed at detecting whether any management or personnel policy, procedure or practice is operating to disadvantage any group based on race, national origin, gender or disability. EEO Plans to Eliminate Identified Barriers, as appropriate, are included with this Federal Agency Annual EEO Program Status Report.

I certify that proper documentation of this assessment is in place and is being maintained for EEOC review upon request.

MD-715 - PART G

Agency Self-Assessment Checklist

The Part G Self-Assessment Checklist is a series of questions designed to provide federal agencies with an effective means for conducting the annual self-assessment required in Part F of MD-715. This self-assessment permits EEO Directors to recognize, and to highlight for their senior staff, deficiencies in their EEO program that the agency must address to comply with MD-715's requirements. Nothing in Part G prevents agencies from establishing additional practices that exceed the requirements set forth in this checklist.

All agencies will be required to submit Part G to EEOC. Although agencies need not submit documentation to support their Part G responses, they must maintain such documentation on file and make it available to EEOC upon request.

The Part G checklist is organized to track the MD-715 essential elements. As a result, a single substantive matter may appear in several different sections, but in different contexts. For example, questions about establishing an anti-harassment policy fall within Element C (Management and Program Accountability), while questions about providing training under the anti-harassment policy are found in Element A (Demonstrated Commitment from Agency Leadership).

For each MD-715 essential element, the Part G checklist provides a series of "compliance indicators." Each compliance indicator, in turn, contains a series of "yes/no" questions, called "measures." To the right of the measures, there are two columns, one for the agency to answer the measure with "Yes", "No", or "N/A;" and the second column for the agency to provide "comments", if necessary. Agencies should briefly explain any "N/A" answer in the comments. For example, many of the sub-component agencies are not responsible for issuing final agency decisions (FADs) in the EEO complaint process, so it may answer questions about FAD timeliness with "N/A" and explain in the comments column that the parent agency drafts all FADs.

A "No" response to any measure in Part G is a program deficiency. For each such "No" response, an agency will be required in Part H to identify a plan for correcting the identified deficiency. If one or more sub-components answer "No" to a particular question, the agency-wide/parent agency's report should also include that "No" response.
