

Notice at Collection

Under the California Privacy Rights Act (CPRA), California consumers are entitled to a notice at or before the point of collection of their personal information. This notice serves as BNSF's Notice at Collection as required under the CPRA.

BNSF may collect personal information from you and use it for specified purposes. For a list of categories of personal information that we collect, the purposes for which we use such personal information, and the length of time we retain such personal information, see the Information Collected, Use of Personal Information, and Retention of Personal Information sections, respectively, of the BNSF Privacy Statement.

BNSF does not sell or share personal information for monetary value or for cross-context behavioral advertising. In order to perform a business purpose, BNSF may provide personal information collected to our affiliates, service providers, and other third parties we use to help run our business – such as vendors or website hosts. Our service providers do not further collect, sell, or use the personal information except as necessary to perform the business purpose.

For more information about our privacy policy, please see the BNSF Privacy Statement.

Effective Date: January 1, 2023

Last Revised: January 1, 2023