Classification: Grants Management Specialist, GS-1109-11

INTRODUCTION:

This position is located within a Bureau or equivalent Office within the Department of the Interior (DOI). The purpose of this position is to perform cradle-to-grave administration including pre-award, award, post-award, and close-out functions in support of various financial assistance programs involving both discretionary and mandatory funding with various legal authorities, statutory requirements and various recipients including non-profits, educational, local and state governments, and tribal entities. These authorities include, but are not limited to, Federal Grant and Cooperative Agreement Act; 2 CFR 200-230; 43 CFR 12; Catalog of Federal Domestic Assistance programs and authorities that allow for financial assistance.

MAJOR DUTIES: (80-100%)

PRE-AWARD:

Analyzes and assesses risk determination and identifies appropriate risk mitigations necessary for the successful completion of the award. Ensures that business management systems are compliant with regulatory requirements. Reviews the recipients most recently filed single audit for findings that may impact the administration of Federal funds or the performance of project activities. These are reviewed and evaluated to ensure systems are adequate to support the cost, type, and term of anticipated project work. Determines any risk mitigation required to protect Federal interest.

Performs detailed budget analysis on both competitive and noncompetitive agreements to determine the allowability, allocability, and reasonableness under applicable cost principles and their relationship to the objectives of proposed project. This involves obtaining, verifying and evaluating data supporting each element of cost.

Prepares award documents for execution and ensures necessary approvals as required by DOI regulations and designates a qualified Grants Officer's Technical Representative (GOTR). Obtains formal legal review, if required, and prepares applicable correspondence. Drafts responses to oral and written inquiries.

POST-AWARD:

Administers, modifies, and terminates financial assistance actions, and performs budget analysis functions from simple to complex. Administers grants and agreements by monitoring performance, progress and cost, protecting the Government's rights, enforcing all terms and conditions and ensuring that all actions are properly completed.

Monitors the performance of recipients through review of performance reports, financial status reports, and correspondence with both Bureau and recipient program/administrative staff. Resolves any identified noncompliance that arises in the performance of the financial assistance action and determines an applied remedy for noncompliance in accordance with regulation.

Reviews recipient requests for modifications to the agreement, coordinates and facilitates legitimate requested revisions, and processes applicable documentation for executing agreement modifications. Provides direction and guidance to the GOTR or technical representative and recipient throughout the life of the agreement.

Performs and monitors close-out of agreements which includes reconciling financial information and processing a funding de-obligation, if required.

SELECTION:

Reviews program plans and evaluation criteria and is responsible for determining which instrument is appropriate for program based on authorizing legislation, principal purpose of the award to be made and substantial involvement, if applicable. Develops and posts notice of funding opportunity (NOFO) to applicable systems.

Receives, reviews and evaluates all applications for assigned programs to ensure that proposals/agreements conform to law, regulations, Bureau and DOI policy and are consistent with the published NOFO. Monitors the objective review process of recipient's technical proposals and advises independent review panels, as necessary. Proposal deficiencies and recommendations are made to the approving official with mitigating conditions that will be imposed upon recipient with the notice of award, if applicable.

Performs other duties as assigned.

FACTOR 1 – KNOWLEDGE REQUIRED BY THE POSITION      FL 1-7 1250 PTS

Extensive knowledge of a wide range of concepts, principles, and practices in grants management and thorough knowledge of administrative and technical procedures, including automated financial assistance processes and systems, and skill in applying this knowledge to difficult and complex work assignments.

Knowledge of and skill in applying statutes, applicable regulations, Executive Orders, Code of Federal Regulations, OMB Circulars, Bureau, and DOI policies associated with grants management including applicable cross-cutting requirements of other Federal or State agencies.

Familiarity with research sources such as court decisions, Comptroller General decisions, etc. These include but are not limited to Federal Grant and Cooperative Agreement Act; 2 CFR 200-230; Departmental policies; Catalog of Federal Domestic Assistance programs and authorities that allow for financial assistance; Federal budget authorizations and appropriations law

Knowledge of Bureau and Office mission, projects, programs, partners, and stakeholders administered by supported programmatic customers in order to ensure that the awards meet the needs of program.

Knowledge of business management systems including financial management, procurement, personnel, property management, and travel, and working knowledge and skill in budget analysis and cost principles and methods in order to identify and mitigate risks to ensure that public funding is awarded to only those organizations capable of managing them. Ability to conduct research, analyze information, draw conclusions, and take action or make recommendations based on sound business judgment, including terms and conditions, costs on agreement awards and modifications, and indirect rates.

Skill in effectively expressing information to individuals or groups, taking into account the nature of the information (e.g., technical, sensitive, controversial).

Skill in writing in a clear, concise, organized, and convincing manner for the intended audience.

Skill in establishing collaborative working relationships with stakeholders to ensure that their needs are heard and addressed; identifying and analyzing problems; distinguishing between relevant and irrelevant information to make logical decisions and develop solutions and communicating effectively with all levels and types of organizations and audiences.

Skill in using partnerships to achieve collaborative solutions and resolve complex problems; utilizing project management, conflict management, mediation, team building, and negotiation tools to achieve results in a collaborative spirit; and analyzing diverse viewpoints to make planning decisions and solve work problems.

FACTOR 2 – SUPERVISORY CONTROLS

FL 2-4 450 PTS

The supervisor outlines overall objectives and available resources and the incumbent and supervisor, in consultation, discuss scope of the assignment, methods, and time frames. The incumbent plans and carries out projects and assignments and resolves most conflicts independently and coordinates and collaborates with stakeholders to accomplish the work. The incumbent interprets policy and regulatory requirements in terms of established objectives and keeps the supervisor informed of progress and potentially controversial problems, concerns, issues, or other matters. Throughout the project or activity, the incumbent develops changes to plans and/or methodology and provides recommendations for improvements in order to meet program objectives. The supervisor reviews completed work for soundness and quality of overall approach, effectiveness in meeting requirements or producing expected results, the feasibility of recommendations, and adherence to requirements.

FACTOR 3 – GUIDELINES

FL 3-3 275 PTS

Guidelines include laws, rules, policies, procedures, and methods governing the administration of Federal grants, cooperative agreements, and awards. These guidelines require a degree of interpretation to determine the extent of relevance to each particular action. The employee exercises judgment and initiative to identify those aspects of regulations which apply to the specific financial assistance action, adapts procedures, decides upon approaches, and resolves specific problems in agreement formulation, administration, termination, and budget analysis functions.

FACTOR 4 – COMPLEXITY

FL 4-4 225 PTS

Assignments involve a full range of activities involved in financial assistance, from selection to award to closeout. Assignments are complicated by the necessity for correlating specific actions within the appropriate phase of project development; the necessity for recognizing, correlating and meshing the requirements, problems and practices of disciplines involved (e.g. program, budget, administrative, etc.). Further complications include handling numerous financial assistance agreements that are in varying stages of development, most of which are complex and are of long duration.

There are continuing changes in technical requirements. Departures from previous agreements may require the employee to devise new techniques to fulfill the requirements. Some situations that arise may include new or one-of-a-kind situations with no precedents. Some agreements are further complicated by strict time constraints and high public profile.

FACTOR 5 – SCOPE AND EFFECT

FL 5-3 150 PTS

The purpose of the work is to perform a variety of actions that provide for the effective management of the Financial Assistance Program within the employee's area of responsibility. Financial Assistance actions are typically defined and established with some precedent to follow. The work affects the operations of the internal organization/program stakeholders and various recipients' operations and contributes to the timely and economical accomplishments of the organizational objectives and may have an economic impact on recipients, sub-recipients, subcontractors, and vendors, in the area of responsibility.

FACTOR 6 – PERSONAL CONTACTS

FL 6-3 60 PTS

Personal contacts include technical and management staff; contracting, budget, finance, and legal staff throughout the Bureau; technical and managerial representatives of non-profits, educational institutions and state and local governments who either desire or have been awarded financial assistance agreements with the Bureau.

FACTOR 7 – PURPOSE OF CONTACTS

FL 7-3 120 PTS

Advise, inform, and exchange information with contacts on such things as progress of an agreement, development of an agreement, interpreting regulations and resolving problems, and preparation of negotiation positions. Contacts are to plan and coordinate actions. The employee must be skilled in dealing with highly divergent points of view and be able to persuade when necessary. Contacts with the private sector occur to exchange information in conducting market research and fact finding, to negotiate and to resolve problems, and to resolve problems. Legal opinions may be obtained.

FACTOR 8 – PHYSICAL DEMANDS

FL 8-1 5 PTS

The work is typically performed in an office setting with no special physical demands. However, work may also be performed in the field which involves periods of walking, bending, climbing, or driving motor vehicles to worksites. The work may also involve some overnight travel for training, meetings, and site visits.

FACTOR 9 – WORK ENVIRONMENT

FL 9-1 5 PTS

The work is usually performed in an office setting. However, work time may also be spent periodically visiting field sites. Field site visits are typically performed in either an outdoor setting subject to weather changes, diverse terrain, and safety hazards associated with working around complex features and/or construction, or an industrial setting subject to noise, fumes, and moving machinery. Both settings may require the use of personal protective equipment. Safety precautions and protocols are observed at all times and the incumbent complies with safety instructions and regulations and ensures individual and others' safety by promptly reporting unsafe acts, unsafe conditions, and accidents to the supervisor.

Other Significant Facts:

The incumbent may be required to obtain and maintain Grants Management certification from an approved organization. The incumbent may be appointed as a Grants Officer with the authority to sign awards, modifications, terminations, and other actions associated with Financial assistance instruments within the prescribed limits of their appointment documentation.
