Classification: Financial Specialist, GS-501-11

Introduction:

The purpose of this position is to assist higher graded financial analysts, accountants and other bureau financial management employees in providing accounting and financial management services to the bureau.

Major Duties and Responsibilities:

Plans and conducts financial management studies that involve the analysis of interrelated administrative processes; e.g., budgetary, financial, procurement, and property management functions; recommending adaptation of established procedures to eliminate problems or improve the operations under study; •reviewing and evaluating financial systems for effectiveness of internal controls and integrity of the organization's financial information; analyzing processing flows, integration of external system interfaces, and internal subsystem modules; reviewing data in reports and financial statements and identifying abnormal trends and control weaknesses; •reviewing and analyzing financial reports generated by the system, identifying problems and discrepancies, and determining if adjustments or corrections are required; participating in the preparation of recurring financial management reports, statements, and supporting justifications by performing problem analysis, ensuring data integrity and consistency, preparing related financial documentation, and adapting financial management procedures to satisfy reporting requirements; and/or evaluating financial system software by preparing test scenarios for new releases, enhancements, and existing features of the software, and by conducting actual testing and documenting results.

Factor 1, Knowledge Required by the Position

Level 1-7 1250 points

Extensive knowledge of, and the ability to apply financial management concepts, principles, and techniques.

Extensive knowledge of financial management operations.

Knowledge and skill to apply new developments in financial management concepts and techniques to changing programs.

Ability to work in a team, including the ability to plan and schedule work, define and streamline processes, produce results, and direct and develop team members.

Integral knowledge of the Department-wide financial system and reporting requirements of other agencies, e.g., GAO, OMB, and the Department of the Treasury sufficient to plan and conduct financial studies and write reports; conduct financial reviews, determine compliance with generally accepted accounting and financial management principles and standards, and identify problems.

In-depth knowledge to identify problems and improve financial management efficiency and effectiveness and satisfy financial management reporting requirements and correct internal control weaknesses.

Factor 2, Supervisory Controls

Level 2-4 450 points

The employee works under the supervision of a supervisor in the Bureau finance office, who outlines objectives. Typically, the supervisor and employee, in consultation, discuss time frames, assignment scope, and possible stages and approaches. The employee determines the most appropriate principles, practices, and methods to apply in all phases of assignments; interprets regulations on his/her own initiative; applies new methods to resolve complex and/or intricate, controversial, or unprecedented issues and problems; resolves most of the conflicts that arise; and keeps the supervisor informed of progress and of potentially controversial matters. The supervisor reviews completed work for soundness of overall approach, effectiveness in meeting requirements or expected results, and adherence to requirements. Proposals and recommendations are evaluated for reasonableness and utility within the accounting structure and program operation.

Factor 3, Guidelines

Level 3-3 275 points

Guidelines include OMB, GAO, Treasury, FASAB, Interior, and bureau directives, circulars, and precedent-setting decisions. The employee independently selects, interprets, and applies the guides; modifies, adapts, and makes compromises to meet the requirements of the assignment; and exercises judgment in applying standard financial management practices to new situations, and in relating new work situations to precedent ones.

Factor 4, Complexity

Level 4-4 225 Points

Work involves applying many different and unrelated processes and methods to a broad-range of activities in solving financial management problems in particularly difficult and responsible circumstances; advises financial managers and program managers on financial policy and procedures; recognizes problems with the existing accounting system, recommends changes, and integrates or implements improvements developed in-house or elsewhere; and prepares and directs the preparation of a number of regulatory and special purpose management financial or statistical reports, ensuring that they are accurate and timely. The employee must be adept at conceiving new strategies for the solution of accounting problems in an environment characterized by complex and variable programs supported.

Factor 5, Scope and Effect

Level 5-3 150 points

Work may involve identifying financial management and accounting problems in the automated system, on such things as inadequate maintenance of funds control, inaccurate records and reports, and/or improper methods of document control; reconciling automated accounting data; and/or analyzing internal controls. Work affects organizational compliance with regulatory requirement; and the availability of financial data.

Factor 6/7, Personal Contacts and Purpose of Contacts

Level 3b-110 points

Contacts are with officials of the Department and bureaus, the Department of Treasury, OMB, and private firms. Some contacts are not routine and depend on events which are sometimes not predictable. The contacts vary with respect to purpose. Ground rules for conducting the contacts likewise vary. The purposes of contacts are to plan, arrange, coordinate, or advise on work efforts, arrange for meetings to obtain information, and, as required, to obtain data to verify questionable items.

Factor 8, Physical Demands

Level 8-1 -5 points

The work requires no special physical demands. It may involve some walking, standing, bending, or carrying of light items such as files, computer reports, or office supplies.

Factor 9, Work Environment

Level 9-1 5 points

Work is performed in an office setting with adequate light, heat, and ventilation.
