IMPLEMENTING PROCEDURES FOR PERSONAL ASSISTANT SERVICES FOR EMPLOYEES WITH DISABILITIES

I. DEFINITIONS:

- a) Disability: Has the same meaning as the definition in Section 1.b of the Implementing Procedures to PPM 857.
- b) Targeted disability: A subset of the larger disability category including, but not limited to:
- Developmental disabilities, such as cerebral palsy and autism spectrum disorder;
  - Traumatic brain injuries;
  - Deafness or serious difficulty hearing, benefitting from, for example, American Sign Language;
  - Blindness or serious difficulty seeing even when wearing glasses;
  - Missing extremities (arm, leg, hand, and/or foot);
  - Significant mobility impairments, benefitting from the use of a wheelchair, scooter, walker, leg brace(s), and/or other supports;
  - Partial or complete paralysis (any cause);
  - Epilepsy and other seizure disorders;
  - Intellectual disabilities (formerly described as mental retardation);
  - Significant psychiatric disorders, for example, bipolar disorder, schizophrenia, PTSD, or major depression;
  - Dwarfism; and
  - Significant disfigurement, for example, disfigurements caused by burns, wounds, accidents, or congenital disorders.

As of the date of this PPM, lists of disabilities that are designated as targeted disabilities are found on the Office of Personnel Management's Standard Form 256 and the EEOC's Demographic Information on Applicants form. These lists may be subject to change.

- c) Personal Assistance Services (PAS): Assistance with performing activities of daily living that an individual would typically perform if he or she did not have a disability, and that is not otherwise required as a reasonable accommodation, including, for example, assistance with removing or putting on clothing, eating, and using the restroom during work hours and job-related travel. Other examples of PAS could include pushing a wheelchair or helping an employee get into or out of a vehicle at the worksite.

PAS do not help employees with disabilities perform their specific job functions, such as reviewing documents or answering questions that come through a call-in center. PAS differ from services that help an employee to perform job-related tasks, such as sign language interpreters who enable individuals who are deaf to communicate with coworkers, and readers who enable individuals who are blind or have learning disabilities to read printed text. Those services are required as reasonable accommodations, if the individual needs them because of a disability and providing them does not impose undue hardship on the agency. FCA's obligation to provide reasonable accommodations is independent of this PPM and the regulation it implements.

- d) Personal Assistance Service (PAS) provider: An employee or independent contractor whose primary job functions include provision of PAS that help individuals with targeted disabilities perform activities of daily living, including, for example, assistance removing and putting on clothing, eating, and using the restroom. A PAS provider need not have medical training or medical qualifications.
- e) Undue hardship: Has the same meaning as the definition in Section 1.e of the Implementing Procedures to PPM 857, except that "reasonable accommodation" is replaced with PAS.

II. FCA'S OBLIGATION TO PROVIDE PAS

FCA is required to provide an employee with PAS, provided by a PAS provider, during work hours and job-related travel if:

- a) The employee requires such services because of a targeted disability;
- b) The employee will be able to perform the essential functions of the job once PAS and any required reasonable accommodations have been provided; and
- c) Provision of such services would not impose undue hardship on FCA.

FCA is not required to provide PAS to help employees commute to work. FCA is required to provide PAS only when an employee is working or is on work-related travel.

III. PROHIBITION ON ADVERSE ACTIONS BASED ON NEED FOR PAS

FCA will not take adverse actions against job applicants or employees based on their need for, or perceived need for, PAS.

IV. SELECTION AND USE OF PAS PROVIDERS

- a) Finding PAS Providers:

Applicants for PAS provider positions may be found in the same way that applicants for other positions are located -- by advertising the opening on USAJOBS and other job posting boards. Additional resources include local vocational rehabilitation offices, American Job Centers, centers for independent living, home care agencies, and the individual who requested PAS. Additionally, some contractors are available through GSA Advantage.

b) Employee's Choice of PAS Provider:

If FCA hires a PAS provider who will be assigned to a single employee, and if that employee prefers a provider (for example, because the provider has worked with him or her in the past), FCA must give primary consideration to that choice to the extent permitted by law. However, it may not be possible to honor the employee's preferences in all cases. FCA may choose a different provider if, for example, the employee's preferred provider is not qualified or less qualified than another applicant; if FCA decides to utilize a pool of shared providers instead of dedicated providers; for reasons of cost or convenience; or if FCA decides to have appropriate existing employees provide PAS.

An employee may request permission to bring his or her own PAS provider to work as a reasonable accommodation (not as a PAS) if the employee does not request that FCA assume the cost of providing the services. However, if the employee wants FCA to assume the cost of providing the services, FCA may have reasons to choose a different provider, as discussed above.

c) Terms of PAS Provider Employment:

FCA may require PAS providers to provide PAS to more than one employee, as long as each employee entitled to PAS receives PAS in a timely manner.

FCA may assign non-PAS job functions to PAS providers, as long as these other duties do not interfere with provision of PAS and all employees who are entitled to PAS continue to receive them in a timely manner. These other duties could include work-related tasks that are required as a reasonable accommodation or work-related tasks that any assistant would provide.

FCA may not require a non-PAS provider employee to provide PAS to another employee.

V. Requests for PAS

The process for requesting PAS is the same as the process for requesting reasonable accommodations under Section 2 of the Implementing Procedures to PPM 857, except that "reasonable accommodation" is replaced with PAS, applicants are not entitled to PAS, the time frame set forth in paragraph (d) of Section 2 does not apply, and FCA Form 502 is replaced with FCA Form 519, Confirmation of Request for Personal Assistance Services (CRPAS).

VI. Process for Determining Whether PAS are Required

Once a decision-maker receives a request, the requesting employee, the decision-maker, and the RAC will work together to determine whether and what kind of PAS are required. The procedures set forth in Sections 5, 6, 7, and 10 of the Implementing Procedures to PPM 857 will be followed, except that “reasonable accommodation” is replaced with PAS, “disability” is replaced with “targeted disability,” and FCA Form 504 (referenced in Section 10) is replaced with FCA Form 517, Personal Assistance Services Information Reporting Form.

VII. FCA Staff Responsibilities

FCA staff responsibilities are the same as those set forth under Section 4 of the Implementing Procedures to PPM 857, except that “reasonable accommodation” is replaced with PAS.

VIII. Denial of PAS Request

FCA is required to provide PAS only if the requesting employee is entitled to them under the regulations. Therefore, FCA may deny a request for PAS if:

- The requester is not an FCA employee;
- the requester does not have a targeted disability;
- the targeted disability does not create a need for PAS;
- the requester is not able to perform the essential functions of the job, even with PAS and any reasonable accommodations;
- the requester would create a direct threat to safety on the job, even with PAS and any reasonable accommodations; or
- providing PAS would impose undue hardship on FCA.

The process for denying a PAS request is the same as that set forth in Section 11 of the Implementing Procedures to PPM 857, except that “reasonable accommodation” is replaced with PAS, and FCA Form 503 is replaced with FCA Form 518, Denial of Personal Assistance Services Request.
