The Commission’s jurisdiction in the financial marketplace extends to financial products and services offered or provided to consumers by persons other than banks, thrifts, federal credit unions, bona fide non-profit organizations, and others exempt from the FTC’s jurisdiction under the FTC Act. IV. Law Enforcement

A. Coordinated Law Enforcement Activities

1. The parties shall endeavor to coordinate law enforcement activities, including conducting joint investigations where appropriate, to minimize duplication of efforts and burden on MOU Covered Persons.

2. The parties shall endeavor to maximize efficiencies and resources by seeking opportunities to share resources and eliminate redundancies.

3. Where practicable, the parties shall conduct joint training and make materials on law enforcement and the MOU Consumer Financial Laws in connection with offering or providing Consumer Financial Products or Services available to each other.

4. The parties shall meet no less than quarterly to discuss future law enforcement activities and how they can coordinate and cooperate effectively in those activities. The parties may combine this meeting with the meeting to discuss consumer and business education and outreach initiatives required under Section IX below.

B. Notice of Commencement of Investigation

1. Prior to commencing an investigation of an MOU Covered Person for potential violations of an MOU Consumer Financial Law in connection with offering or providing Consumer Financial Products or Services, each party shall, through regular consultations or other means, such as the computerized system referred to in Section IV.B.4, seek to determine whether the other party (i) has investigated or is investigating that MOU Covered Person for violations of an MOU Consumer Financial Law in connection with offering or providing Consumer Financial Products or Services; (ii) has filed a court action or administrative proceeding against that MOU Covered Person alleging violations of an MOU Consumer Financial Law in connection with offering or providing Consumer Financial Products or Services; or (iii) has obtained an order or judgment against that MOU Covered Person in a court action or administrative proceeding based on violations or alleged violations of an MOU Consumer Financial Law in connection with offering or providing Consumer Financial Products or Services. Upon inquiring whether the other party has or had an investigation, action or proceeding, or order or judgment described in (i) – (iii) above, the party to which the inquiry was directed shall respond within ten (10) business days.

2. Absent exigent circumstances, five (5) business days before commencing an investigation of an MOU Covered Person for potential violations of an MOU Consumer Financial Law in connection with offering or providing Consumer Financial Products or Services, a party shall notify the other party of the identity of the MOU Covered Person and the intended topic or topics of the investigation. If the other party has or had an investigation, action or proceeding, or order or judgment concerning the MOU Covered Person involving violations of an MOU Consumer Financial Law in connection with offering or providing Consumer Financial Products or Services, the parties will consult concerning the anticipated investigation to reduce the risk of inefficient, duplicative, or conflicting law enforcement activities. If the party seeking to commence the investigation determines that the other party has obtained an order or judgment against the MOU Covered Person and the conduct to be investigated may violate that order or judgment, the party shall articulate why it believes that it should commence a new investigation.

3. To facilitate identification of matters in which the other party has obtained an order or judgment against an MOU Covered Person in a court action or administrative proceeding based on violations or alleged violations of an MOU Consumer Financial Law in connection with offering or providing Consumer Financial Products or Services, each party shall provide the other with a list of currently binding orders and judgments obtained against MOU Covered Persons within 60 days of the execution of this MOU. This list shall identify the parties subject to each order or judgment, the court and docket number for the forum in which the matter took place, and the expiration date for the order or judgment. This list shall be updated quarterly. The parties shall provide such an updated list until they arrange another means of sharing the same information.

4. The parties shall work toward the development of a secure computerized system that each party can independently search to determine whether the other party (i) has investigated or is investigating an MOU Covered Person for violations of an MOU Consumer Financial Law in connection with offering or providing Consumer Financial Products or Services; (ii) has filed a court action or administrative proceeding against an MOU Covered Person alleging violations of an MOU Consumer Financial Law in connection with offering or providing Consumer Financial Products or Services; or (iii) has obtained an order or judgment against an MOU Covered Person in a court action or administrative proceeding based on violations or alleged violations of an MOU Consumer Financial Law in connection with offering or providing Consumer Financial Products or Services.

C. Notice of Filing an Action or Commencing a Proceeding

1. The parties shall provide each other with notice prior to filing a complaint, a notice of charges, or any similar document that will initiate a court action or an administrative proceeding alleging that an MOU Covered Person has violated or is violating an MOU Consumer Financial Law in connection with offering or providing Consumer Financial Products or Services. Notice shall be given no later than ten (10) business days prior to filing.

2. If the party filing the document initiating the action or proceeding seeks a finding of contempt, or, if it plans to seek a temporary restraining order, expedited preliminary injunction, a temporary cease and desist order or other similar relief, and ten (10) business days advance notice is not possible, notice shall be given as soon as practicable and not later than three (3) business days prior to filing.

3. The required notice shall include:

- a. The court or body in which the action or proceeding is to be initiated;
- b. The identity of the parties to the action or proceeding;
- c. The nature of the action or proceeding;
- d. The anticipated date of initiation of the action or proceeding;
- e. The alleged facts underlying the action or proceeding; and
- f. The relief it may seek to remedy the conduct.

To the extent the complaint, notice of charges, or similar document that will initiate the action or proceeding contains the information listed in this subsection, that document constitutes sufficient notice of that information. In addition, the party shall provide any materials related to settling the action or proceeding, if those materials are to be filed at the same time as the complaint, notice of charges, or similar document. If the information in the notice becomes inaccurate, incomplete, or otherwise changes after such notice is given but before a complaint or a notice of charges is filed, the party who provided the notice shall update or otherwise modify the information in the notice as soon as practicable, but in no event later than the time of filing of the complaint or the notice of charges.

D. Notice of Settling an Action or a Proceeding

No later than ten (10) business days prior to filing a consent decree, consent order, or settlement agreement in court, or accepting for public comment a proposed consent order or issuing a final consent order in an administrative proceeding, to resolve allegations that an MOU Covered Person violated an MOU Consumer Financial Law in connection with offering or providing Consumer Financial Products or Services, a party shall notify the other party of the action it may take. The required notice shall identify persons who have been or may be named in the action or proceeding and include a description of the conduct that the party may allege or has alleged to be unlawful and the relief it may seek or has sought to remedy that conduct. If ten (10) business days advance notice is not practicable, notice shall be provided as soon as practicable, but in no event later than the time of filing. If the information in the notice becomes inaccurate, incomplete, or otherwise changes after such notice is given but before (1) filing the consent decree, consent order, or settlement agreement in court; (2) accepting for public comment the proposed consent order; or (3) the issuance of the final consent order in an administrative proceeding, the party who provided the notice shall update or otherwise modify the information in the notice as soon as practicable, but in no event later than when any of those events occur.

E. Notice of State Enforcement

If a state provides a party with a notice required by the Omnibus Appropriations Act of 2009 that the state intends to file an action against an MOU Covered Person for violating the Mortgage Assistance Relief Services Rule, 12 C.F.R. Part 1015, or the Mortgage Acts and Practices – Advertising Rule, 12 C.F.R. Part 1014, the party who receives the notice shall forward it to the other party as soon as practicable.

F. Intervention in Law Enforcement Action

1. Either party may intervene in any court action in which it shares jurisdiction under an MOU Consumer Financial Law that the other party commences against an MOU Covered Person alleging violations of MOU Consumer Financial Laws in connection with offering or providing Consumer Financial Products or Services. Upon intervening in any such action, each party, among other things, may be heard on all matters arising in the action, and may file petitions for appeal in such actions.

2. No later than twenty (20) days prior to a party moving to intervene in an action that the other party has commenced, the intervening party shall notify the other party of its intention to intervene and the reason for its intervention. If twenty (20) days advance notice is not practicable, the party shall provide the notice as soon as practicable.

G. Coordination to Minimize Duplicative or Unnecessarily Burdensome Actions

1. The parties shall coordinate regarding potential court actions and administrative proceedings to minimize inefficiency, duplication, and unnecessary burdens on MOU Covered Persons. The parties will not initiate court actions or administrative proceedings against the same MOU Covered Person regarding violations of MOU Consumer Financial Laws in connection with offering or providing Consumer Financial Products or Services arising from the same conduct, except in unusual circumstances and after consultation between the parties. This limitation shall not apply to the parties' filing of joint or coordinated court actions or administrative proceedings, or to intervention in an action as provided for in Section IV.F.

2. If a party has commenced a court action or administrative proceeding against an MOU Covered Person alleging violations of MOU Consumer Financial Laws in connection with offering or providing Consumer Financial Products or Services, the other party will not, during the pendency of that action or proceeding, commence a court action or an administrative proceeding against the same MOU Covered Person named in the complaint, notice of charges, or similar document in such pending action for violating any MOU Consumer Financial Laws alleged against such MOU Covered Person in the complaint, notice of charges, or similar document. This provision shall not be construed to prohibit the parties from filing joint or coordinated court actions or administrative proceedings, or from intervening in an action as provided for in Section IV.F.

V. Rulemaking and Guidelines

A. Consultation – Generally

1. The CFPB shall consult with the FTC, in accordance with Section 1022(b)(2) of the CFP Act, regarding rulemakings under MOU Consumer Financial Laws covering the conduct of MOU Covered Persons in connection with offering or providing Consumer Financial Products or Services. To promote consistency in guidance provided to MOU Covered Persons, the CFPB and the FTC shall meet periodically, including as described in Section VII, to discuss initiatives regarding agency advisory opinions, agency guides, comprehensive guidance documents or comprehensive commentaries that interpret or apply MOU Consumer Financial Laws to the conduct of MOU Covered Persons in connection with offering or providing Consumer Financial Products or Services.

B. Consultation on Rulemakings and Guidelines Regarding the Prohibition on Unfair, Deceptive, and Abusive Acts or Practices

1. Pursuant to Section 1061(b)(5)(D) of the CFP Act, and to avoid duplication or conflict in regulatory standards developed pursuant to the parties' respective rulemaking authorities, the parties shall consult as follows on rulemakings under Section 1031 of the CFP Act or Section 18 of the FTC Act covering the conduct of MOU Covered Persons in connection with offering or providing Consumer Financial Products or Services.

2. At the earliest time practicable each party shall notify the other party that it intends to issue proposed or final rules under Section 1031 of the CFP Act or Section 18 of the FTC Act covering the conduct of MOU Covered Persons in connection with offering or providing Consumer Financial Products or Services. No later than sixty (60) days before the publication of an Advance Notice of Proposed Rulemaking, Notice of Proposed Rulemaking, Final Rule, or similar notice in connection with the issuance of such proposed or final rules, the publishing party shall notify the other party. Such notification shall include a description of the issues that the proposed or final rules may address. If sixty (60) days notice is not practicable, notice shall be provided as soon as practicable.

3. The parties shall consult promptly on the prospective proposed or final rules unless the non-publishing party declines to consult. Following the publication of an Advance Notice of Proposed Rulemaking or Notice of Proposed Rulemaking, the parties shall consult to discuss the comments received in response to the Notice.

4. The parties shall consult promptly on formal comprehensive agency guidance documents by either party that address unfair, deceptive, or abusive acts or practices regarding MOU Covered Persons in connection with the offering or provision of Consumer Financial Products or Services. No later than thirty (30) days prior to a party issuing such proposed or final document, it shall notify the other party of the substance of the document and the expected date of issuance. If thirty (30) days notice is not practicable, the party shall provide notice as soon as practicable.

VI. Supervision and Examination

A. Sharing Supervisory Information

The parties shall meet no less than quarterly to discuss the CFPB's plans to examine MOU Covered Persons and results of any such examinations, as well as coordination and cooperation of future activities in light of these results. The CFPB will provide the FTC with notice of any significant changes to the examination plans between quarterly meetings. Upon FTC request in connection with filing an action or commencing a proceeding or upon FTC request in other circumstances, the CFPB also will provide the FTC with information regarding the anticipated start date of a planned examination within two (2) business days of the request.

B. Examination Reports and Confidential Supervisory Information

Pursuant to the specific function outlined in Section 1013(b)(3)(A) of the CFP Act, the CFPB agrees to share consumer complaint information with the FTC through the Consumer Sentinel Network, so that such information will be made available to all other law enforcement organizations that use the Consumer Sentinel Network, subject to the limitations of Section 1013(b)(3)(D) of the CFP Act. The FTC will make all consumer complaints it receives available to the CFPB through the Consumer Sentinel Network.

3. If the request is not made pursuant to the Freedom of Information Act or the Privacy Act, before complying with the third party request, consult with the providing party and, to the extent applicable, give the providing party a reasonable opportunity to respond to the demand or request and to assert all reasonable and appropriate legal exemptions or privileges that the party providing the information may request be asserted on its behalf; and
