In 1962, President Kennedy proclaimed May 15 as National Peace Officers Memorial Day and the calendar week in which May 15 falls, as National Police Week. Established by a joint resolution of Congress in 1962, National Police Week pays special recognition to those law enforcement officers who have lost their lives in the line of duty for the safety and protection of others.

Officer Bashang #3030

I grew up in Glendale Heights and still live here today. I attended Glenbard North High School and then went on to receive my Bachelor's Degree in Psychology with a concentration in Criminology from Wartburg College.

While studying, I was a member of Kappa Delta Honor Society, President of the Criminology Club, competed on the wrestling team, and made the Dean's List.

My favorite inspirational quote is "Do today what others won't, so tomorrow you can do what others can't." I am very close with my family and in my free time, I enjoy working out, photography, and swimming.
