

GOES-T

ATLAS V 541 ROCKET COMPONENTS

The GOES-T launch vehicle is a United Launch Alliance (ULA) Atlas V flying in the 541 configuration. The three numbers in the 541 designation signify a payload fairing, or nose cone, that is approximately 5 meters (16.4 feet) in diameter; four solid rocket boosters attached to the common core booster and a single-engine Centaur upper stage.

