

MARYLAND BUSINESS WORKS

The Maryland Department of Labor, in consultation with the Maryland Department of Commerce, is excited to announce the continuation of Maryland Business Works (MBW), a highly successful incumbent worker training program that supports employer strategies for retention, growth expansion, and layoff aversion.

PROGRAM FEATURES

- Invests in Maryland Private Sector Businesses – Private and non-profit businesses with 500 employees or fewer that provide in-demand products or services are eligible to apply.
- 50% Reimbursement to Offset Training Cost – There is a dollar-to-dollar match requirement, and a $4,500 training cap that may be awarded to a specific trainee for a project or series of projects each program year. The maximum request per program year cannot exceed $40,000.
- Customized & Flexible Training Options – The program funds classroom-based training, in-house staff training, apprenticeships, and other opportunities for Maryland's businesses as they create and foster their talent pipeline that lead to industry recognized credentials.

PROGRAM BENEFITS

- Making your business more productive, profitable, and competitive.
- Creating job stability for workers with upgraded skills.
- Career growth and increased wages for workers through training in transferable skills or industry-wide recognized certification or credential programs.
- Creating career pathways and promotional tracks and workforce growth for Maryland businesses and industries.

Training Grants are awarded on a competitive basis.
