Ok, 2 meetings, 1 hour each, with buffer in case runs into 1 hr 30 minutes :)

Thanks.

1 meeting for water contractors, 1 meeting for NGOs. 3 hours is way too long. That'll give them a lot of time to ask questions I/we don't know the answers to, or offer a lot of unsolicited advice!

I was just drafting an email to you - I will be sending out a doodle pool today for the reoccurring, and the Tuesday meeting will have to be the initial meeting.

And I was emailing about the names of contractors, water agencies. - question - are we making meetings with each separate, or can we group them together? so maybe 3 hour meetings with each group?

I am going to try and set up meet & greet with Barry with these people too, so if I get any names or contacts I'll let you know.

Aimee,

Any progress in coordination with Francia? When David Mooney put next Tuesday on our calendars a couple of weeks ago, I was thinking that's way too late, but here we are. We still need the recurring weekly technical team meetings and the recurring monthly management team meetings.

I have a call in to the water contractors and NGO's for names to attend the stakeholder meetings. As a heads up, we're shooting for the week of October 10 (may be The week of October 3 but we'll be in Santa Cruz 3 days that week).

Thanks for the update. I suspect it's Maria's calendar being the bottleneck, but if it would help, I could tell you the meetings I don't usually go to. You might want to mention your update to Maria, as she might be willing to rearrange her schedule to make the initial mgmt meeting sooner.

Hi Garwin,

So you know, I am going to offer dates for the initial meeting starting week after next. I will try and send it out, and the doodle polls tomorrow afternoon at the latest.
