

Visit CPIR's Resource Page on ESSA

ESSA | Every Student Succeeds Act

January 2016

- Get a copy of the ESSA
- Quick look at the major titles of the law
- Reports from Congress on the new law
- From the authority on ESSA: The U.S. Department of Education
- Summaries of changes in the law
- How ESSA impacts students with disabilities
- Other voices from the field

<http://www.parentcenterhub.org/repository/essa-reauth/>

Your informed participation in the implementation of the new law is critical!

What types of information will you need in order to:

- Be a partner in your State's development of its new accountability plan
- Communicate with parents & families—and on behalf of parents & families!—about the upcoming changes

Parent Centers, weigh in!

Coming Events!

Debra Jennings | Center for Parent Information and Resources

- Check out the RSA-funded Parent Centers
- Attend the RAISE Webinar on “Soft Skills for the Workplace” on February 16, 2016
- Join your State team and take part in the National TA Center on Transition Capacity-Building Institute from May 3-5

<http://www.raisecenter.org/>

<http://www.parentcenterhub.org/repository/webinar-essa/>

You can find the slides, helpful handouts, and (very soon) the recording of this webinar on the webpage we've created for this event.

Webinar | ESSA: The Every Student Succeeds Act

Edit

A webinar for the Parent Center Network

- Listen to the webinar and view the slides (Coming soon!)
- Download the Powerpoint presentation
- Download a PDF of the Powerpoint presentation

Webinar Date:

Thursday, February 4, 2016

Host:

Center for Parent Information and Resources (CPIR)

Presenters:

Lisa Pagano, Office of Special Education Programs
U.S. Department of Education
lisa.pagano@ed.gov

CPIR would like to thank our presenters today.

Center for
Parent Information
and Resources

Lisa Pagano

OSEP, U.S. Department of Education
Washington, DC 20202

lisa.pagano@ed.gov

Leslie Clithero

OSEP, U.S. Department of Education
Washington, DC 20202

leslie.clithero@ed.gov

Thank you very much for attending this webinar.

Debra Jennings, Project Director
debra@parentcenterhub.org

Lisa Küpper, Product Development
lkupper@fhi360.org

Myriam Alizo, Project Assistant
malizo@spannj.org

David Blanchard, Senior Advisor
dave@p2pga.org

Indira Medina, Communication and Dissemination
imedina@fhi360.org

Center for
Parent Information
and Resources

Your feedback helps CPIR improve.

Please take a moment
to complete a very brief survey
about the usefulness of this webinar to you.

We've posted the link in the "Chat" box.

<http://survey.constantcontact.com/survey/a07ec7v919uik8d2ja6/start>

Again, thank you!