Slide 2/ Operation and Discussion: The Parent on the IEP Team

Text of slide:

Who must be included on the IEP Team?

The child's parent(s)

This slide begins the listing of members on the IEP Team. It's important to tell your audience that the order in which the IEP Team members are going to be listed and discussed has nothing to do with their priority on the team, that every member has an equal say and important expertise to contribute. In actual fact, the order that's used in these slides follows the order used in IDEA 2004, nothing more.

Parents on the IEP Team

Since the passage of Public Law 94-142 in 1975, parents have been recognized as vital members of the IEP Team. Everyone agrees that parents have an enduring and passionate interest in the well-being and education of their child. So it makes perfect sense that Congress would ensure that parents are represented on the IEP Team, front and center.

- The school must invite the parents to the IEP meeting early enough to ensure that one or both parents have the opportunity to attend and participate. The notice must include the purpose of the meeting, its time, and location, and who will attend.

Typically, parents know their child very well—not just the child's strengths and weaknesses, but all the little qualities that make their child unique. Parents' knowledge can keep the team focused

HANDOUTS in the Updated Modules: What You'll Find

You'll find:

- Handouts in Spanish
- In PDF
- in Word, so you can include state-specific information, your Parent Center's logo, and contact information (good for accessibility concerns, too!)

We've removed all outdated handouts, so there are far fewer to copy and share!
