

Pacific Marine Environmental Laboratory

A leader in developing ocean observational systems to address NOAA's mission

Professional Societies, 2004-2008

Timothy S. Bates, AGU Fellow, elected 2007

Richard A. Feely, AGU Fellow, elected 2007

Michael J. McPhaden, President-elect, AGU, 2008-2010

Michael J. McPhaden, President, Ocean Sciences Section, American Geophysical Union, 2002-2004

Michael J. McPhaden, Member, Executive Committee, AGU Ocean Science Section 2000-present

Michael J. McPhaden, AMS Fellow, elected 2007

Michael J. McPhaden, Oceanography Society Fellow, elected 2005

Dennis W. Moore, AMS Fellow, elected 2005

Patricia K. Quinn, Council Delegate for the Atmospheric and Hydrospheric Sciences Section, American Association for the Advancement of Science (AAAS), 2002 – 2005

Patricia K. Quinn, Committee on Council Affairs, American Association for the Advancement of Science (AAAS), 2003 – 2005

Patricia K. Quinn, Electorate Nominating Committee for the Atmospheric and Hydrospheric Sciences Section of AAAS, 2007–2010

Service in Major Scientific Meetings:

Meghan F. Cronin, Convenor, “Workshop on the Application of EPIC2001 Data for Improving and Testing Coupled Atmosphere-Ocean Models”, UW Applied Physics Laboratory, 11-13 May 2005.

Robert W. Embley, Co-Organizer, Special Session on Active Hydrothermal and Volcanic Processes at Intraoceanic Volcanic Arcs, American Geophysical Union, 2004 Fall Meeting