From: Ben Kyger
 Director, NCEP Central Operations

Subject: NWS API Version 1.10.1 Upgrade on or around November 16, 2022

This Service Change Notice is intended to inform users that effective on or around November 16th at 1500 Coordinated Universal Time (UTC), the National Weather Service (NWS) API application, <https://api.weather.gov>, will add International Civil Aviation Organization (ICAO) Meteorological Information Exchange Model (IWXXM) products to the /stations endpoint. Please see <https://api.weather.gov/openapi.yaml> for more details.

This release addresses the following issues reported by the public:

api.weather.gov/stations being unavailable
Observation eXtensible Markup Language (XML) data being unavailable for some stations Observation precipitation values being 0 or null.

Additionally, Avalanche Weather Guidance messages will now be available via the products endpoint at: <https://api.weather.gov/products/types/AVG>.

Please direct questions, comments or requests regarding this implementation to the contacts below. We will review any feedback and decide whether to proceed.
