Subject: National Weather Service (NWS) Directives System URL Change:
Effective on or about June 3, 2024

On or about June 3, 2024, the NWS Directives System (NDS) and the contents therein will be moved to a new location. This website lists NWS policy directives, procedural directives, and supplements.

Users who currently access the NDS via nws.noaa.gov/directives should update their bookmarks to the new URL to ensure seamless access. The new URL is <https://www.weather.gov/directives>.

The new URL is currently accessible and can be used immediately. Until the switchover date, <https://www.weather.gov/directives> will redirect to the legacy site. After the switchover date, it will take the user to the new location.

The old URL, nws.noaa.gov/directives, will be discontinued after June 3, 2024.
