

Cumberland County Recorder Offers Consumer Protection with Property Fraud Alert

Free Service Alerts Property and Homeowners to Potential Fraud

Property Fraud Alert offers:

- Ability to sign up online or via phone
- Receive alerts via text, email or phone

Property Fraud Alert is an online subscription service offered to the public that allows individuals to have their name monitored within the County Recorder's office in order to track possible fraudulent recordings that affects their property.

Subscribers can choose to receive a text message alert when a document is recorded in their name. This will ensure that they never miss an update and can continue getting the most out of PFA.

"As an elected official, I make it a priority to help safeguard our homeowners and their financial well-being," states Cumberland County Recorder, Beverly Howard. "Today, we proudly offer Property Fraud Alert for combating fraud and empowering our community. This valuable service is free of charge to all homeowners, providing them with the necessary tools and resources needed to monitor their homes. The time and money victims can save due to these early notifications of fraud are priceless."

Property Fraud Alert is available by subscription on the web at www.propertyfraudalert.com/select, or by calling 800-728-3858.
