Horse Breed Identification Games

Beginners or Intermediates

Breed Matching Game

Materials needed: Laminated breed pictures and breed identification tags from the Kentucky Horse Volunteer Certification Resource Kit (KHVCR Kit)

An individual or a group of youth can play this game.

Individual Play

The youth lays out all of the breed pictures on a table or floor. The correct identification tag is then matched with the correct picture.

Lay out the type identification tags on the table or floor. The youth will lay the breed picture under the correct horse type. To self-check, the youth turns the cards over to see if the tags match. This game can be repeated until the youth masters all of the names.

Group Play

Give each youth in the group one or more identification tags. The leader hold up the breed picture and the youth with the identification card calls out the correct name. (The leader can check the back of the breed picture to make sure it is a correct match).

Give each youth the group one or more breed pictures and / or identification tags. The leader holds up a type identification tag. Youth with the breeds that can be classified under that type stand up.

This activity can be modified by posting type identification cards around the room. Breed pictures are left in a pile in the center of the room. At the leader's signal, youth will pick up a picture or identification tag and take the tag to the correct horse type identification card.

Team Option: Youth can be divided into teams. Each team will have a pile of breed pictures/cards. The team that correctly sorts the greatest number of breeds wins.

Group Sorting Activity

This activity can be used with groups of at least six or more youth.

- Divide members into equal-sized groups. Allow one group to identify breeds and sort by type. If live horses are available, group can mark stall/halter/etc with post-it notes. In lieu of live horses, laminated photographs or model horses may be used.
- After the first group is finished, allow second group to review results and make changes.
- Make any corrections needed, lead group discussion about decisions made.

Breed Classification Chart

Senior level

List each breed below underneath the proper horse type classification.

- | | | |
|-----------------|------------------|--------------------------------|
| Appaloosa | Morgan | Thoroughbred |
| Arabian | Paint Horse | Haflinger |
| Belgian | Paso Fino | Hanoverian |
| Percheron | Welsh | Missouri Fox Trotter |
| Quarter Horse | Holsteiner | Kentucky Mountain Saddle Horse |
| Connemara | Saddlebred | Clydesdale |
| Norwegian Fjord | Shetland | Icelandic |
| Standardbred | Trakehner | Shire |
| Miniature | Tennessee Walker | |

Draft	Stock	Saddle (Gaited)	Sport Horse	Pony

Bonus: How would a Mule or a Hinny be classified?

A mule or a jinny is a hybrid cross – a cross between a horse and a donkey. They are popular for use as pack horses, trail and pleasure riding. Hybrid crosses are sterile).
