

Morgan

Type: Light Breed, Pleasure or Saddle type

Origin: Springfield, Massachusetts

Uses: Showing, dressage, western pleasure, etc.

Important Traits: Versatility, powerful, solid gait

Size: 14.1- 15.2 Hands

Description: Morgans are known for their alert expressions. Their heads have wide-set, large eyes and attractive, small ears, a refined neck and head that give them an air of elegance.

Color Pattern: Typically chestnut, bay or brown, may also be black, gray, palomino, creme, dun, or buckskin.

