National Library Week

April 7–13, 2024

NEW!

Ready, Set, Library! Race to discover the possibilities at your library during National Library Week.

Libraries give us a green light to something truly special: a place to connect with others, learn new skills, and focus on what matters most. Find your crew at your library's author talks, workshops, and book clubs. Enjoy the scenic route through the stacks to find your new favorite story. Or take a virtual detour and see all the resources your library offers online.

No matter where you find yourself on the roadmap through life's journey, libraries are there for you, all the way to the finish line. Find more information and free resources at ala.org/nlw.

NEW! Hot Dog

Storytime has gone to the dogs! This charming poster depicts the star of Hot Dog and his canine friends, captivated by their companion reading aloud. Written and illustrated by Doug Salati, Hot Dog received the 2023 Caldecott Medal as well as the Ezra Jack Keats Award. Hot Dog is a heartwarming and humorous story about an adorable dachshund who finds cool relief on a hot summer day. Help kids keep their cool and don't let your books get dog-eared with a pack of bookmarks featuring Hot Dog racing off to read. Special thanks to Doug Salati for original artwork and Alfred A. Knopf Books for Young Readers, an imprint of Random House Children's Books, a division of Penguin Random House.

NEW!Pete the Cat

Get kids in the "groove" and reading with Pete the Cat. In this new poster and bookmark illustrated by James Dean Pete's signature cool confidence is on full display, and his enthusiasm for books is contagious.

James Dean is the creator and illustrator of Pete the Cat. A self-taught artist, he illustrated his first children's book, Pete the Cat: I Love My White Shoes, in 2008. An artist and author, Kimberly Dean penned her first Pete book, Pete the Cat and His Magic Sunglasses, in 2013. Look for Pete in new adventures including Pete the Cat's Wacky Taco Tuesday and Pete the Cat for Class President!, along with other new titles in early 2024. Thanks to Kimberly and James Dean, MerryMakers, and HarperCollins Children's Books.

Meg Medina

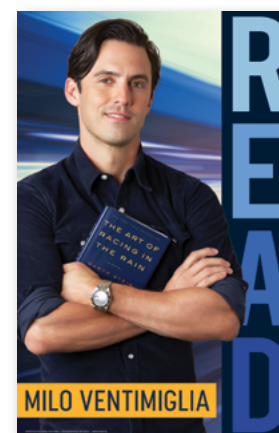

Meg Medina, the 2023–2024 National Ambassador for Young People's Literature, will serve as the 2024 honorary chair of National Library Week, which takes place April 7–13. Meg writes for readers of all ages: her middle-grade novel Merci Suárez Changes Gears, the first book in an acclaimed trilogy about the Suárez family, received the Newbery Medal. Her novels for young adults include Yaqui Delgado Wants to Kick Your Ass, which has been adapted and illustrated as a graphic novel by Mel Valentine Vargas; and Burn Baby Burn, which was long-listed for the National Book Award and short-listed for the Kirkus Prize. Her picture books include the 2020 Jumpstart Read for the Record selection Evelyn Del Rey Is Moving Away and the forthcoming No More Señora Mimi, illustrated by Brittany Cicchese, arrives September 2024.
