

Report to the People Bullitt County 2024

Meet the Staff:

David Littlejohn; County Director

Ruth Chowning; Family Consumer Science

Samantha Gamblin; 4H & Youth Development

Lorilee Kunze; Horticulture

Tori Riehemann; 4H & Youth Development

Nathan Rider; Ag & Natural Resources

Brandon Hatfield; Fine Arts

- 468 people implemented one or more best practices for improving soil quality /soil health
- 319 people adjusted rate, timing, placement and/or sources to increase nutrient use efficiency
- 3865 youth gained an understanding of the role of agriculture in the production of food, fiber, and wood products
- 516 people implemented one or more best practices for improving water quality
- 378 people collected soil samples for testing

- 340 youth completed a drama, music, or dance project
- 20 artisans participated in an artisan or farmers' market
- 20 participants reported greater awareness or increased appreciation of local arts agencies and businesses
- 400 participants reported participating in a new artistic experience
- 30 artists reported appreciation and/or validation of their artistic accomplishments
- 15 Extension Arts volunteers serving on community boards, agencies, and planning commissions

Cooperative Extension Service
Agriculture and Natural Resources
Family and Consumer Sciences

4-H Youth Development
Community and Economic Development

Educational programs of Kentucky Cooperative Extension serve all people regardless of economic or social status and will not discriminate on the basis of race, color, ethnic origin, national origin, creed, religion, political belief, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, pregnancy, marital status, genetic information, age, veteran status, or physical or mental disability. University of Kentucky, Kentucky State University, U.S. Department of Agriculture, and Kentucky counties cooperating.
LEXINGTON, KY 40546

COOPERATIVE EXTENSION

Bullitt County Cooperative Extension Office
384 Halls Lane
Shepherdsville, KY 40165
502-543-2257
Email: bullitt.ext@uky.edu

- 6720 Youth agreed that 4-H is a place where they have the chance to be a leader.
- 228 youth participated in overnight, 4-H summer camp
- 3715 youth indicated they made healthy lifestyle choices as a result of what they learned through 4-H programming
- 440 youth participated in project, activity, or event for science, engineering, and technology projects
- 1412 youth demonstrated a skill that was learned or improved by participating in 4-H natural resource programming

- Kentucky Extension Homemakers volunteered 150 hours for Extension activities and events
- 106 people reported improved knowledge, opinions, skills, or aspirations regarding the safe storage, handling, preparation and/or preservation of food
- 1041 people reported they utilized delivery systems/access points (e.g. farmers' markets, CSAs, WIC, food pantries) that offer healthy foods
- 107 program participants reporting adoption of physical activity practices
- 6995 youth participated in education related to family and consumer sciences

- 5367 indirect and 1785 direct contacts made by Master Gardeners
- 2367 people gained knowledge in consumer and home horticulture including: native plants, disease and pests, composting, site analysis, and proper maintenance
- 497 people gained knowledge on establishing and maintaining pollinator habitats
- 146 people gained knowledge in honey production, marketing and proper maintenance
- 1843 people used Extension information to make decisions on site selection, varieties, and /or maintenance

Cooperative Extension Service
Agriculture and Natural Resources
Family and Consumer Sciences

4-H Youth Development
Community and Economic Development

Educational programs of Kentucky Cooperative Extension serve all people regardless of economic or social status and will not discriminate on the basis of race, color, ethnic origin, national origin, creed, religion, political belief, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, pregnancy, marital status, genetic information, age, veteran status, or physical or mental disability. University of Kentucky, Kentucky State University, U.S. Department of Agriculture, and Kentucky counties cooperating.
LEXINGTON, KY 40546

