

IDENTITY-BASED CAREER RESOURCES FOR International Students

Peabody Career Services is proud to support international students through individual meetings and targeted programming to assist with their successful career search. We work closely with Peabody's Office of International Student & Affairs who focuses on helping international students thrive academically and socially at Peabody.

International Student & Scholar Services is the primary visa resource for non-immigrant students and scholars at Vanderbilt University. Their advisers have the expertise to help you understand regulations related to Optional Practical Training (OPT), Curricular Practical Training (CPT), employment sponsorship, and work authorization in the United States.

■ National & International Organizations

ESL Cafe: a resource for international job boards and forums featuring specific Chinese and Korean job boards.

GoinGlobal: helps new and experienced job seekers find opportunities both at home and abroad.

Immihelp: a resource for comprehensive information about U.S. legal immigration.

International Student: provides students with resources to help investigate and pursue an international education, through relevant content and custom online tools.

MyPerfectResume: provides international job resources to help search for employment in specific countries and/or regions of the world.

MyVisaJobs: the largest and most trusted employment website for international students and foreign workers seeking opportunities in the United States.

Overseasjobs: forum and job board featuring overseas jobs and international employment opportunities.

Teachaway: job information for teaching English as a second language abroad.

U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services: official information about students and exchange visitors working in the United States.

United OPT: job portal for OPT Jobs in the United States and offers career resources for international candidates who are looking for CPT and OPT jobs.

Uniworld Online: searchable database of contact information of multinational companies with headquarters in over 200 countries.

■ Jobs/Internships in China

The resources listed below are for international students who are seeking jobs or internships in China and the language of all of these platforms are in Chinese.

Boss Zhipin: a platform for students to directly contact employers and find jobs.

Maimai: students can get connected with alumni through the platform and find job opportunities.

Qichacha: website for students to find information and authentication of companies in China.

Shixiseng: a platform for students to find internships and job opportunities.

Zhilian Zhaopin: job searching and applying platform.