

The Office of Scientific Writing

What

- Opportunity for College of Public Health faculty and staff to work with a scientific writer to help strengthen manuscripts. Access to an administrative writer to assist with IRB proposals, reviews, and questions.

Editing Services
Provide feedback on structure, organization, cohesiveness, rhetorical best practices, etc.
Provide basic, single-read-thru edit for mechanical correctness, stylistic consistency, and formatting.
Format tables, create figures, help rewrite sentences and paragraphs.
Prepare manuscripts for submission to a journal.

How it works

- Faculty and staff complete a REDCap intake form [<https://is.gd/OSWIntakeCPH>] and upload project documents.
- First-come, first-served basis. Whenever possible, try to give at least a month's notice to ensure bandwidth. If you don't have that much time we still encourage you to check in to see what might be possible.

Why

- To provide services that will increase the quality and quantity of the College's research output.
- Increase faculty and staff with manuscript publications and productivity.
