

Emergency and Disaster Response Fund Awards
November 14 – November 20, 2024
26 Awards Totaling $3,341,100

$23,700 to Mission Ministries Alliance for debris removal and site stabilization at its shelter in McDowell County.

$25,000 to Appalachian Mountain Community Health Centers to fully restore the operations of six clinics and a mobile van serving Buncombe, Jackson, Graham, and Cherokee counties.

$50,000 to The Arc of North Carolina to replace essential office equipment so that services for individuals with disabilities can resume in the WNC Region.

$50,000 to Asheville Area Habitat for Humanity to support rebuilding its administrative offices and ReStore in Buncombe County.

$25,000 to Beacon of Hope Services to provide essential supplies to people impacted by the hurricane in Madison, Mitchell, Avery, Yancey, and northern Buncombe counties.

$142,600 to Blue Ridge Partnership for Children to assist with costs that will help seven childcare facilities in Avery, Mitchell, and Yancey counties reopen.

$25,000 to Bounty & Soul to provide home goods assistance and food support to individuals affected by the hurricane in Buncombe County.

$12,500 to Brush Creek Elementary School to provide essential supplies to students' families who were impacted by the hurricane in Madison County.

$280,000 to Buncombe Partnership for Children to support re-opening costs at eight childcare facilities that are currently inoperable due to facility damage caused by the storm.

$25,000 to California Creek Baptist Church to provide essential services and supplies to people impacted by the hurricane in Yancey, Mitchell, Buncombe, and Madison counties.

$250,000 to Centro Unido Latino-Americano to provide continued direct assistance to individuals and families affected by the hurricane and to support them in stabilizing their housing in McDowell, Buncombe, Burke, and Mitchell counties.

$25,000 to Circle of Mercy to provide care to patients from Buncombe, Haywood, Jackson, Madison, McDowell, Mitchell, Rutherford, Transylvania, and Yancey counties as well as the Qualla Boundary who are being released from the hospital but who cannot return home due to damages caused by the hurricane.

$25,000 to Culture's Edge to provide essential supplies and services to communities affected by the hurricane in Rutherford and Buncombe counties.

$25,000 to Dayspring Foundation to provide financial assistance for basic needs to people in substance abuse recovery who were affected by the hurricane in Buncombe, Rutherford, and McDowell counties.

$25,000 to Highlands Community Child Development Center to replace the facility's roof that was damaged by the hurricane in Macon County.

$25,000 to Literacy Together to provide essential services to clients who were affected by the hurricane in Buncombe County and to help them navigate FEMA, employment, and other issues.

$25,000 to Love and Respect Community for Recovery and Wellness to provide essential supplies and services to people impacted by the hurricane in Henderson, Transylvania, Buncombe, Polk, and Rutherford counties.

$12,500 to Madison High School to provide essential supplies to students' families affected by the hurricane in Madison County.

$50,000 to Mountain Community Health Partnership for costs associated with the temporary relocation of its Micaville facility in Yancey County.

$25,000 to North Carolina Hmong Women Association to provide essentials supplies and services to Hmong people impacted by the hurricane in Burke and McDowell counties.

$25,000 to Partners Unlimited to provide essential supplies to low-income families affected by the hurricane in Buncombe County.

$35,000 to RiverLink to engage volunteers to remediate Helene-damaged streams on private property in the French Broad Watershed.

$25,000 to Rutherford Housing Partnership to provide critical home repairs for low-income people whose homes were damaged by the hurricane in Rutherford County.

$50,000 to Southern Appalachian Highlands Conservancy for critical infrastructure repairs, including roads and bridges on conserved properties, in the WNC Region.

$2,000,000 to North Carolina Synod, ELCA to partner with Mennonite Disaster Services in rebuilding private bridges destroyed by the hurricane, focusing on Avery, Mitchell, Yancey, Madison, Rutherford, and Buncombe counties.

$59,800 to Western North Carolina Regional Educational Foundation to create a temporary position assisting WNC School systems in assessing and prioritizing needs that arise during recovery and researching and coordinating groups to help meet those needs.