

Discover Martin County

The legacy of old Florida lives on in Martin County, where the arts and cultural attractions embody the natural beauty of classic Florida, while providing a fun, Key West vibe and nearly 22 miles of beautiful beaches.

Encompassing the communities of Port Salerno, Stuart, Palm City, Jensen Beach, Indiantown, Jupiter Island, Hobe Sound, and Hutchinson Island, Martin County provides the perfect setting for breathtaking golf courses, as well as world-class fishing, water sports, and eco-adventures.

Stay and Play in Martin County

Awaken each morning to the sights and sounds of peaceful, tropical Martin County. Enjoy a nice diversity of quaint inns, romantic retreats, family-oriented hotels, and beachside and marina resorts, including our own golf resort, Hutchinson Island Marriott Beach Resort & Marina.

Located on a barrier reef bordered by the Atlantic Ocean and the Intracoastal Waterway, this 200-acre resort is just seven miles from downtown Stuart. The 274 villa-style guest rooms boast private balconies with stunning views, stylish decor, plush bedding, and high-tech amenities. Take advantage of the resort's 18-hole executive golf course and 77-slip private marina. Stay fit using the modern fitness center, 13 tennis courts, and three outdoor pools. Enjoy a bountiful breakfast buffet and all-day dining at Baha Grille or savor craft cocktails at the tiki bars.

Martin County Golf Courses

Martin County is located right in the middle of the region known as Florida's Treasure Coast, which stretches from St. Lucie County to Palm Beach County. The 50+ area golf courses, including the 72 holes at PGA Village, are easily accessible with Martin County as your home base.

Martin County itself boasts 14 semi-private and public courses created by notable designers like Jack Nicklaus, Ron Garl, Arthur Young, Chi Chi Rodriguez, and both Tom and Jim Fazio. Martin County is also home to over 14 golf communities and private clubs with reciprocal privileges, with courses designed by Pete Dye, Tom Fazio, Greg Norman, Nick Price, Butch Harmon and Arnold Palmer. All of this makes Martin County your next great golf vacation destination.
