

TO MAKE THE BEST BETTER

4-H/ Youth Development Education Chairman Report October 2016

This has been a successful year for 4-H in the Homemaker Program. 12 out of 14 areas reported on their activities (this represents 73 counties) with the following results:

Number of members working with youth:	1,764
Volunteer hours working with youth:	90,953
Scholarships given and youth to camp:	114
Dollar amount of 4-H camp scholarships:	$14,050.00
Total number of youth reached:	36,300
Areas completing all 3 levels of Program of Work:	6
Number of members doing consumer lesson:	391

Some of the projects participated in by members were: Reality Stores, 4-H Specialty Clubs, Farm and Safety Classes, School Reading Programs, Recycling, Judging Demonstrations and Speeches, Backpack Program, Sewing Classes, Shooting Sports, Tutoring, Mentoring, Needlework, 4-H Council, Truth or Consequences, Communications Day, Judging at Fair, Crochet, Dollars and Sense, Book Fairs, Holiday Store For Youth, Worked 4-H Camp, VBS, Sunday School, Shared With Home School 4-H Club, Fed Football Teams Before Games, Health Fair, Woodworking, Food Prep Classes, School Ag Day, Photography Sessions, Ham Project, Quilting, Horticulture, 4-H Fashion Review, Knitting, Supervised Trip to Europe, Taught Leap Lesson to Cloverbuds, Crochet, Embroidery, Conducted AWANA Program, Read Books To Class, Science, Boy Scouts, Canning, Livestock, Santa's Castle, Achievement Banquet, Mission Trip, Chaperoned, Garden Club, Rachel's Challenge, Testing Preparation, Red Ribbon Week, Summer Feeding Program, Movie for Disabled Tea, and Floral Hall at Fair.

As we finish up this year, I am looking forward to working with you on the new Program of Work and feel you will find it interesting and exciting. Our theme will be Communications and Expressive Arts for 2017-2020.

Respectfully submitted,

Nancy A. Snouse
4-H/Youth Development Education Chairman
6110 Twelve Oaks Drive
Ashland, Kentucky 41102
wsnouse@msn.com
740-963-0111 Cell

