

RULES OF CONDUCT POLICY

Effective Date: January 21, 2015

I. POLICY OVERVIEW/DESCRIPTION

Kellogg-Hubbard Library seeks to create an environment that is welcoming, safe, healthy, and barrier-free to ensure that all patrons have a positive experience. The Board of Directors authorizes the Executive Director to establish and develop rules of conduct to ensure that such an environment is created and maintained. The Director or designated staff is given authority to remove patrons who are disruptive or otherwise compromise the quality of the library environment.
