

The UNIVERSITY of OKLAHOMA

OU is the state's No. 1 university, according to U.S. News & World Report's 2024 Best Colleges list. Among all public universities in the region, OU placed in the Top 5.

3rd HIGHEST in graduate salaries after five years among SEC and Big 12 schools with an average starting salary of $62,841

TOP 5 INDUSTRIES

for OU graduates: Health Care, Manufacturing, Oil & Gas, K-12 Education, and Internet & Software

30,000+ ENROLLED STUDENTS

Record-breaking 7,000+ in-state applications for 2024

Students from across the world representing

50 STATES 76 OKLAHOMA COUNTIES 125+ COUNTRIES

HIGHEST RANKED

business, engineering, and law schools in Oklahoma

#1 AVIATION PROGRAM

#1

in the country for ATMOSPHERIC SCIENCE AND METEOROLOGY

#1 RESEARCH UNIVERSITY

in Oklahoma

1,446 RESEARCH AWARDS

TOTALING $386M in FY23

Among the TOP 8% of research universities nationwide for the second year

80%

of Oklahoma's HEALTH CARE PROFESSIONALS are trained by OU

ONLY NCI-DESIGNATED CANCER CENTER

in Oklahoma

OU Health is OKLAHOMA'S FIRST comprehensive academic health system that:

- ▶ trains the state's health professionals
- ▶ conducts innovative medical research
- ▶ delivers health care to Oklahomans

- OU Campus
- OU Health/ Medical Center

THE OU IMPACT

Collectively, the OU System is a $2.1 billion enterprise that represents one of the greatest assets of the state of Oklahoma.