

259M+

pages of world-class collections

190+

newspapers covering over 350 years

325+

years of historical periodicals coverage

6 Centuries

of history covered in our collections

ProQuest's Primary Source Collections Second to None!

98%

of faculty believe it is extremely important to assign primary sources to students to develop critical thinking skills

200k

average pageviews per month of Early English Books Online

95%

of librarians believe that they help students develop research, critical analysis and information literacy skills

93%

of employers say critical thinking, clear communication and the ability to solve complex problems is more important than a student's undergraduate major

60%

of undergraduates have poor skills related to locating and evaluation scholarly information

95%

of Humanities Upper Division faculty assign primary source materials in their teaching

357

Number of subject areas covered by publications that cite historical periodicals*

40%

of Humanities dissertations and theses reference newspapers

14%

of all dissertations in PQDT Global cite content from historical periodicals*

10

average number of different primary sources used by Humanities faculty in research

*Selected ProQuest Historical Periodicals analyzed