Curated Collection on SDG 6: Clean Water and Sanitation

New!

ProQuest's new Ebook Central collection aligns with the UN's Sustainable Development Goal 6: Clean Water and Sanitation to address one of humanity's most pressing challenges.

This carefully curated collection includes over 500 titles across multiple disciplines including engineering, public health, economics, environmental science, policy, agriculture, and computer science.

Featuring acclaimed titles and curated to save time searching for vetted, scholarly content, this collection bridges disciplines to inspire innovation in sustainable water systems, water-efficient agriculture, disease prevention, equitable resource governance, and cutting-edge AI-driven solutions.

Available through LibCentral, Rialto, and OASIS with flexible acquisition options, it equips educators and students with the resources needed to tackle global water challenges collaboratively.

New! LibList: Microbiome Health

Curated by Lorna Goudie, Acquisitions Coordinator at Edge Hill University, UK, this list explores the transformative role of gut health in overall well-being, covering topics such as the gut-brain axis, the microbiome's impact on immunity, and dietary interventions for optimal health.

To explore this and other LibLists, please check the Curated Topics sections on LibCentral, OASIS and Rialto.

ProQuest Syndetics Unbound™

Syndetics Unbound Receives Platinum 2025 Modern Library Award

Syndetics Unbound, a library catalog enrichment service from ProQuest, has earned a Platinum Award in LibraryWorks' Modern Library Awards (MLA). Librarians with hands-on experience judge the MLA awards and only products that score 8.5-10 from the judges earn a Platinum designation.

'Syndetics Unbound enhances our Vega Discover catalog with comprehensive content that extends our catalog beyond a list of resources', said Laurie Shedrick, Assistant Directory and Technology Operations Managers at Mid-Hudson Library System in New York. 'Patrons can find context and connections between the resources they view and take a deeper dive into a particular title or author. It is a critical element in providing the catalog experience we want for our patrons.'

Books Services

Title Matching Fast (TMF)

Start 2025 by giving your students seamless access to the latest course materials and ebooks they need while optimizing your library's space and collection.
