

NOTICE TO QUIT
EVICTION FOR NON-PAYMENT OF UTILITIES

To Tenant: _____
at rental unit address: _____

Violation: You have breached your rental agreement with me by not paying $_____ to _____, and the services have been stopped.

Electric, Natural Gas, or Water Company

Remedy: If there is no damage to the property, you have 3 days after I give you this Notice to (1) get the utility service running again, and (2) pay me $ _____ (the amount I paid to keep service running). If you do not do these things within 3 days you must move out by: Date: _____ Time: _____ a.m. p.m.
[This date must be at least 5 days after the Landlord gives this Notice to the Tenant.]
If you do not fix the violations within 3 days of receiving this Notice or move out by the date and time listed above, I may start a court case to evict you.

No Remedy: This is the second Notice for the same violation in six months. You must move out by: Date: _____ Time: _____ a.m. p.m.
[This date must be at least 5 days after the Landlord gives this Notice to the Tenant.]
If you do not move out by the date and time listed in this paragraph, I may start a court case to evict you.

I personally gave a copy of this Notice to the Tenant: _____
Print Tenant Name

I tried to give a copy of this Notice to the Tenant named above. I knocked on the door, and no one answered. I believed the Tenant was absent, so I securely taped a copy of this Notice to the front door of the rental unit.

I mailed the Tenant a copy of this Notice by registered or certified mail. I have the return receipt.

Pre-Filing Information Sheet

Your landlord has given you a Notice to Quit. This is the first step in the eviction process. If you and your landlord do not work things out, your landlord may start a court case to evict you.

A Notice to Quit tells you:

- The reason the landlord wants to evict you,
- A way to fix the problem, if it can be fixed, and
- The day you need to move out by to stop the landlord from starting an eviction case.

Act

Do not ignore the Notice to Quit.

If you ignore the notice to quit, your landlord may start a court case to evict you.

You have options:

- Try to fix the problem,
- Talk to your landlord and try to work out an agreement, or
- You move out.
