CASE NO. _____

REQUEST FOR ALTERNATIVE SERVICE

1. I am required to notify _____ [name] that I am registering a tribal court custody order in this state case. I am not able to give the clerk an address for this person to do the notice by mail or personal service (process server), or the court clerk could not complete service to an address I already provided. I do not know (and cannot reasonably find out) where the person currently lives or works.

2. I request the court's permission to provide notice of the registration to the person named in section 1 by an alternative method under CINA Rule 24(d)(2). I request to provide notice by: [Check all that apply.]

sending to this email address: _____

sending or posting to this social media/networking account:

posting or leaving a copy of the notice at the following address or location:

posting on the Alaska Court System's legal notice website.

posting in the following local publication of the area where the person may be living:

another method reasonably likely to reach the person:
[Describe in detail how you plan to provide notice.]

3. I believe that the method (or combination of methods) described in section 2 is reasonably likely to reach the person and give the person actual notice, because:

I swear (or affirm) under penalty of perjury that the information in this request is true.
