J. PROBATION CONDITIONS

The following probation conditions will be imposed in this case: GENERAL CONDITIONS OF PROBATION Report to the Department of Corrections Probation Office on the next business day following the date of sentencing, or if time is to be served prior to probation, report to the Department of Corrections Probation Office on the next business day following release from an institution. Report in person between the first day and the tenth day of each month, or as otherwise directed, to your assigned office of the Department of Corrections. Complete in full a written report when your probation officer is out of the office to ensure credit for that visit. You may not report by mail unless you get prior permission to do so from your probation officer. Secure the prior written permission of a probation officer of the Department of Corrections before changing employment or residence or leaving the region of residence where you are assigned. Make a reasonable effort to secure and maintain steady employment. If you become unemployed, notify a probation officer of the Department of Corrections as soon as possible. At no time have under your control a concealed weapon, a firearm, or a switchblade or gravity knife. Do not knowingly associate with a person who is on probation or parole, or a person who has a record of a felony conviction, unless prior written permission to do so has been granted by a probation officer of the Department of Corrections. Make a reasonable effort to support your legal dependents. Obey all federal, state, and local laws and ordinances. Comply with all direct court orders listed above by the deadlines stated. Report to your probation officer all purchases, sales, and trades of motor vehicles belonging to you, together with current motor vehicle license numbers for those vehicles. If this conviction is for a sex offense as defined in AS 12.63.100, submit to periodic polygraph examinations as directed by a probation officer of the Department of Corrections. AS 12.55.100(e). Abide by any special instructions given by the court or any of its duly authorized officers, including probation officers of the Department of Corrections. CR Case No. State of Alaska v o serve more than two years in jail for a felor nse, you may appeal the sentence to the court

NOTE: You may not appeal the sentence as excessive if it was imposed in accordance with a plea agreement that provided for a specific sentence or a sentence equal to or less than a specified maximum sentence. If the sentence was imposed in accordance with a plea agreement that provided for a minimum sentence, you may appeal as excessive only the part of the sentence that is longer than the minimum sentence by more than two years for a felony offense, or by more than 120 days for a misdemeanor offense. Your appeal must be filed within 30 days of the date of distribution stated below. If you are sentenced to serve two years or less in jail for a felony offense, or 120 days or less in jail for a misdemeanor offense, you may seek review of your sentence by filing a petition for review in the Supreme Court. To do this, you must file a notice of intent to file a petition for sentence review within 10 days of the date of distribution stated below. See Appellate Rules 215 and 403(h) for more information on time limits, procedures, and possible consequences of seeking review of your sentence.

THE CURERTOR COURT FOR THE CTATE OF ALACKA

I am fully advised of the following:

- 1. Under the Alaska Constitution, I have a right to have the above charge presented to a Grand Jury for review.
- 2. A Grand Jury consists of 12 to 18 citizens who hear evidence presented by the District Attorney through witnesses.
- 3. During the presentation of a case before the Grand Jury, only the District Attorney, a clerk, and the witness are present.
- 4. The Grand Jury can return an indictment against me only upon the concurrence of a majority of the total number of jurors and when all the evidence taken together, if unexplained or uncontradicted, would warrant a conviction of me at trial.
- 5. If the Grand Jury declines to indict me after reviewing the evidence, the effect is to dismiss the charge which was before them; and that charge may not be again submitted to the Grand Jury without a court order.
- 6. The effect of an indictment being returned by the Grand Jury is to place the charges against me before the Superior Court.
- 7. The effect of a Waiver of Indictment by me will be to allow the charges against me to be placed before the Superior Court without the Grand Jury having reviewed the evidence in my case.

I have received a copy of the Complaint or Information charging me with the offense referred to above and therefore I am familiar with the nature of the charges against me.

I have been advised by my attorney and the court of the nature of the charges against me and my right to indictment by Grand Jury. I have taken into consideration the information listed above. I hereby waive in open court prosecution by indictment and consent to prosecution in Superior Court by information rather than indictment.
