CASE NO. _____ CR

MOTION (REQUEST) TO QUASH WARRANT AND SET HEARING

[Note: Under Criminal Rule 43.1, the warrant can be quashed automatically once you pay the bail on it, and you would not need to file this request. Contact your local court to make payment.]

1. I am the defendant in this case.
2. There is a warrant for my arrest. I ask that this warrant be quashed, because:

3. I understand that: [You must check every box after you read it and make sure you agree.]
 A summons or notice for my next hearing may be sent to the address I give on this form, or I may be given a court date by the clerk at the counter when I file this.
 I must notify the court immediately if my contact info changes (use form TF-955).
 I promise to appear at the next scheduled court hearing in my case. If I do not, a new warrant will go out for my arrest.
 My right to a speedy trial under Alaska Criminal Rule 45 will be tolled (paused) by this request from the date of the warrant until my next appearance in court.
 The warrant will remain outstanding and I will be subject to arrest under the terms of the warrant, unless and until this motion is granted by the judge.
