

6. If you request a hearing, you will be notified of the date, time and place of the hearing. The notice about this hearing will be sent by first class mail to the address you provide in your Request for Hearing.
7. At the hearing, you are responsible for providing evidence to prove any defense you may have to the validity or enforcement of the registered order.
8. If you do not contest the validity or enforcement of the registered order within the specified time, the registered order will be automatically confirmed by operation of law. This means that the order will be enforced and that the amount of arrearages stated in paragraph 3 will be considered correct. If you do not contest the validity or enforcement of the order within the specified time, you are not permitted to make any further challenge to the order with respect to any matter which you could have raised and with respect to the accuracy of the amount of any arrearages shown in paragraph 3.
9. Payments on this registered order must be made to:
