IN THE SUPERIOR COURT FOR THE STATE OF ALASKA

AT _____

_____ (Plaintiff)

_____ (Defendant) CASE NO: _____

ANSWER AND COUNTERCLAIM TO COMPLAINT TO ESTABLISH PATERNITY

with without request for a parenting plan & child support

A. ANSWER

1. This is my response to Plaintiff’s complaint:

- I agree with everything in the complaint.
- I agree with some of the complaint, but I disagree with the statements in these paragraphs: _____
- I am not sure if I agree or disagree with the statements in these paragraphs: _____

B. AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSES

[An “affirmative defense” means that you do not think Plaintiff has a legal right to bring this case. You are arguing that even if everything Plaintiff says in the complaint is true, Plaintiff still should not win the case. You must give facts and legal arguments to support each affirmative defense.]

None of the statements in section B apply to me, and I have no affirmative defenses. [Go to Section C.]

The following affirmative defenses apply to me: [Check all that apply.]

- 1. This court does not have jurisdiction over any child in this case, because:
 - None of the children have ever lived in Alaska.
 - The children used to live in Alaska, but moved on _____ [date].
 - The children live in Alaska right now, but have lived here for less than six months. They moved to Alaska on _____ [date].
 - Another court has already decided paternity.

If you checked one of these boxes, you must fill out and attach to this answer (1) [Child Custody Jurisdiction Affidavit, DR-150 and (2) a “Motion” form. Name it “Motion to Dismiss Paternity Case for Lack of Jurisdiction.” Attach it to this answer. You can use these Motion Forms (ak-courts.info/motpac).]

2. This court does not have jurisdiction over me in this case, because I have never lived in Alaska or done anything in Alaska that could result in a pregnancy with someone who lives in Alaska. I want the court to dismiss this case, because I will be harmed (prejudiced) if this issue is decided in Alaska.

If you checked this box, you must fill out a "Motion" form. Name it "Motion to Dismiss Paternity Case for Lack of Jurisdiction." Attach it to this answer. You can use these [Motion Forms (ak-courts.info/motpac).]

3. This case is in the wrong venue and should have been filed in a different Alaska court location, because:

If you checked this box, you must fill out a "Motion" form. Name it "Motion for Change of Venue." Attach it to this answer. You can use these [Motion Forms (ak-courts.info/motpac).]

4. Other affirmative defenses:

C. COUNTERCLAIMS

[A counterclaim is your side of the story. If you disagree with things Plaintiff said in the complaint, you can tell the court your side by answering the questions below.]

I have no counterclaims. [Go to Section D.]

My counterclaims are in the responses below. In making these counterclaims, I am not giving up (waiving) my affirmative defenses. [Check all that apply.]

1. I disagree with Plaintiff's description of the family relationships:

2. I disagree with who is named as the father on the birth certificates:

3. I disagree with Plaintiff's description of where people live:

4. I disagree with Plaintiff's description of our marital status:

5. I disagree with who Plaintiff claims is the biological father:

6. Plaintiff did not ask for DNA testing, and I want the court to order DNA testing.

If you checked this box, you must fill out and attach to this answer (1) [Motion and Affidavit for Genetic \(DNA\) Testing, DR-530 and (2) Order for Genetic \(DNA\) Testing, DR-531]

7. I disagree with Plaintiff's statements about child support or public benefits:

8. Plaintiff did not ask for a court-ordered parenting plan (a schedule and other arrangements for the children). I want a parenting plan if paternity is established.

- Plaintiff did ask for a court-ordered parenting plan (a schedule and other arrangements for the children), but I disagree with the parenting plan Plaintiff proposed. I want the court to order the parenting plan I proposed if paternity is established.

If you checked one of these boxes, you must fill out and attach to this answer (1) [Child Support Guidelines Affidavit, DR-305 and (2) a proposed parenting plan (custody & visitation plan). See ak-courts.info/parentingplan to learn about making a parenting plan and for different examples of parenting plans you might want to use.]

9. Other things I want the court to know about this case:

More pages are attached. [Only write on one side of the page.]

D. REQUEST FOR RELIEF

I REQUEST THAT THE COURT:

1. Not enter a final order (decree) establishing anyone as the legal and biological father of the children.
- Enter a final order (decree) that
- Plaintiff is established as the legal and biological father of the children.
 - I am established as the legal and biological father of the children.
 - Another person named _____ is established as the legal and biological father of the children.
2. Keep the children's birth certificates the same (not order that the certificates be changed).
- Order that the children's birth certificates be changed by
- adding my name. adding Plaintiff's name.
 - other: _____

[IMPORTANT: If the court orders this as part of the decree, you must send a certified copy of the decree to the Alaska Office of Health Analytics and Vital Records to change the birth certificates.]

3. If paternity is established, order the parenting plan and child support requested on the documents that I am attaching to this answer.

4. Order that I do not owe child support.
5. Other: _____
6. Anything else the court finds appropriate.

Information about Filing and Serving Your Answer & Next Steps

(You do not need to file this page with the court)

You have 20 days after you receive the complaint to file your answer and any other documents you are attaching to it. If the due date is a weekend or holiday, your answer is due the next day the court is open. For example, if you count 20 days and it lands on a Saturday, and the court is open Monday, your answer is due Monday. Count 20 days from

- the date you signed the certified mail green postcard, or
- the date the process server delivered the court documents.

File Your Documents in the Court where the Case was Started and Serve Plaintiff

You must give Plaintiff a copy of everything you file with the court. This is called "service."

1. Fill out the Certificate of Service. This is a section at the end of your answer. Be sure you can serve Plaintiff on the date and in the way you put on the Certificate of Service. You can serve by regular first-class mail or hand-delivery. If Plaintiff files anything in court that says they agree to service by email, you can email it instead. If Plaintiff has a lawyer, you must email, mail, or hand-deliver the copy to their lawyer. If you use the court's TrueFiling system (ak-courts.info/truefile), it will serve any party who also uses TrueFiling.

2. File with the Court. Make 2 copies of everything you are going to give the court. Give the original version of your documents to the court. You can bring the original to your local court or mail it. Or contact your local court to see if they accept email or TrueFile filings (ak-courts.info/dir).
3. Serve. Keep 1 copy for your own records. Give the second copy to Plaintiff on the date and in the way you wrote on your Certificate of Service. If you did not serve Plaintiff on the date or in the way you wrote on your Certificate of Service, fill out a new Certificate of Service, TF-700.

What to Expect after You File Your Answer and Serve a Copy on Plaintiff

If you do not file an answer, Plaintiff can ask the judge to decide the case without hearing from you. Read about Filing for Default (ak-courts.info/default).

After you file your answer, the court will set a hearing and send you a notice with the date, time, and location.
