REQUEST FOR RELIEFI REQUEST THAT THE COURT:

1. Enter a final order (decree) disestablishing me as the biological and legal father.
2. Order that my name be removed from the children's birth certificates.
[IMPORTANT: If the court orders this as part of the decree, you must send a certified copy of the decree to the Alaska Office of Health Analytics and Vital Records to change the birth certificates.]
3. Order that I do not owe any child support after the date I file this complaint.
4. Modify the past due child support (arrearages) as the law will allow.
[The general rule is that the court can't go back and change what was owed in the past. But depending on how the original child support was decided, the court may be able to cancel some or all of the arrearages. This is a complicated area of law and you should talk to a lawyer if you want the court to change the past due child support.]

Learn about forms and how to respond at the Family Law Self-Help Center Website (ak-courts.info/family) or call the Family Law Self-Help Center at (907) 264-0851 or (866) 279-0851.

Information about Filing and Serving Your Documents & Next Steps

(You do not need to file this page with the court)

File Your Documents with Your Local Court and Serve Defendant

1. Make 2 copies of your forms: 1 copy for your own records and 1 copy for the other party. You can bring the original to your local court or mail it. Or contact your local court to see if they accept email or TrueFile filings (ak-courts.info/dir).
2. There is a fee to file a case. If you cannot afford the fee, you can ask the court to waive it. Call the Family Law Self-Help Center at (907) 264-0851 or (866) 279-0851, or use Exemption from Payment of Fees, TF-920.
3. When you open the case, the court clerk will give you 2 copies of a “Summons” and usually a “Standing Order” that contains important information about your case. 1 copy is for you; 1 copy is for Defendant.
4. You must give Defendant a copy of
 - everything you filed with the court,
 - the summons, and
 - the standing order.

This is called “service.” When you first start a case, you must serve Defendant one of these ways:

- Send the documents by certified mail with restricted delivery and return receipt. Make sure you pay for certified mail, restricted delivery, and return receipt so that only Defendant can sign for the mail and the post office sends the green postcard back to you after Defendant signs it.
- Hire a process server. Fill out the form Service Instructions, CIV-615. Give this form to the process server so they will send you the proof of service after they serve the other party.

To learn more read How to Serve a Summons, CIV-106.

Future Service

After the case is open, you can serve all other documents by regular first-class mail or hand-delivery. If Defendant files anything in court that says they agree to service by email, you can email them. If they have a lawyer, you must email, mail, or hand-deliver the copy to their lawyer. If you use the court’s TrueFiling system (ak-courts.info/truefile), it will serve any party who also uses TrueFiling.

What to Expect after You Start Your Case and Serve a Copy on Defendant

Defendant has 20 days to respond to your complaint. Day 1 is the day after:

- Defendant signed the green postcard from the certified mail with restricted delivery and return receipt, or
- The process server delivered your documents and the court papers. This date is on the process server’s proof of service.

Defendant’s response to what you wrote in the complaint is called an “answer.” After Defendant files their answer, the court will set a hearing and send you a notice with the date, time, and location.

If Defendant does not file and serve an answer, you can ask the judge to decide without hearing from Defendant. Read about Filing for Default (ak-courts.info/default).
