

Name: _____

Email: _____ Phone: _____

Mailing Address: _____

I agree to get documents by email instead of mail, check my email regularly, and tell the court and other participants of email changes. Electronic Delivery of Case Documents, TF-820

NOTE: If you do not wish to list your physical address, you still must list a mailing address.

IN THE SUPERIOR COURT FOR THE STATE OF ALASKA

AT _____ Court Location

(Plaintiff)
Biological Mother's Full Name

(Defendant) CASE NO: _____
Biological Father's Full Name [The court will fill this in.]

UNCONTESTED COMPLAINT TO ESTABLISH PATERNITY

with without request for a parenting plan & child support

Instructions: Use this form if both parents agree that Defendant is the biological father and you both want Defendant established as the legal father. Both parents must sign this form. If the court establishes paternity, ask the Alaska Office of Health Analytics and Vital Records to put the father's name on the children's birth certificates. If someone other than Defendant is named as the father on the birth certificates, or Plaintiff was married to another person when Plaintiff got pregnant or gave birth, use Complaint by Mother to Disestablish and Establish Paternity, DR-510 instead. If both parents do not agree to file this case, use one of the contested complaint forms instead: Complaint by Mother to Establish Paternity, DR-500 or Complaint by Biological Father to Establish Paternity, DR-501.]

1. Who is involved in this case?

a. Plaintiff: The biological mother of each child in this case:

Name of Child	Date of Birth

b. Defendant: The biological father of each child named above.

2. Who is named as the father on the children's birth certificates?

- No father is named.
- Defendant is named. [If Defendant is named on the birth certificates, then Defendant is already established as the legal father. You do not need this court case.]
- Other: _____
If you answered "Other" because someone other than Defendant is named on the birth certificate, use [Complaint by Mother to Disestablish and Establish Paternity, DR-510 instead of this form.]

3. Where does everyone live?

- a. Plaintiff lives in Alaska. other: _____
- b. Defendant lives in Alaska. other: _____
- c. The children live in Alaska. other: _____

4. What is the marital status between you?

- We were married to each other when Plaintiff got pregnant or gave birth.
- We married each other after Plaintiff gave birth, and we are still married to each other.
- We divorced on _____ [date] in _____ [place].
- We are not married to each other and never have been.
- Other: _____

5. Why do you think Defendant is the biological father?

- A DNA test showed that Defendant is the biological father.
- We attached the test results.
- Other: _____

6. Child Support.

- a. Has the Child Support Enforcement Division (CSED) ordered anyone to pay child support?
- No. Yes, Plaintiff. Yes, Defendant. We don't know.
- Other: _____
- b. Is CSED working on setting up a child support order?
- No. Yes. We don't know.
- c. Has a court ordered anyone to pay child support?
- No. Yes, Plaintiff. Yes, Defendant. We don't know.
- Other: _____
- d. Have either of you applied for public benefits (ATAP, TANF, Food Stamps, etc.) to support the children?
- No. Yes, Plaintiff. Yes, Defendant.
- Other: _____

7. In a custody case, the court can order a parenting plan (a schedule and other arrangements for the children) and child support. Do you want to ask the court to order a parenting plan and child support as part of this case?

- No.
- Yes, we attached:
- Proposed parenting plan (custody & visitation plan). See ak-courts.info/parentingplan to learn about making a parenting plan and for different examples of parenting plans you might want to use.
- Child Support Guidelines Affidavit, DR-305
- Other: _____

8. Other things we want the court to know about this case:

More pages are attached. [Only write on one side of the page.]

REQUEST FOR RELIEF

WE REQUEST THAT THE COURT:

- 1. Enter a final order (decree) establishing Defendant as the biological and legal father, and if needed, enter a child support order.
- 2. Order that Defendant’s name be added to each child’s birth certificate.
[IMPORTANT: If the court orders this as part of the decree, you must send a certified copy of the decree to the Alaska Office of Health Analytics and Vital Records to change the birth certificates.]
- 3. Order a parenting plan and child support as requested on the documents that we are attaching to this complaint.
- 4. Other: _____
- 5. Anything else the court finds appropriate.

Date

Plaintiff’s Signature

Date

Defendant’s Signature

ATTACHMENTS

We attached the following documents to this complaint.

Required in all cases:

- Child Custody Jurisdiction Affidavit, DR-150
- Case Description Form, CIV-125S
[Not required if you use TrueFiling to electronically file your complaint.]
- Information Sheet, DR-314

Required if there is an existing child support order:

- A copy of the court’s or CSED’s child support order

Required if DNA testing already happened and you have a copy:

- The DNA test results

Required if you are asking the court to order a parenting plan and child support:

- Proposed parenting plan (custody & visitation plan). See ak-courts.info/parentingplan to learn about making a parenting plan and for different examples of parenting plans you might want to use.
- Child Support Guidelines Affidavit, DR-305

Other attachments:
