MORE INFORMATION and NEXT STEPS

(This page is for your information only, it does not need to be filed with the court)

Once you file your petition in court, the court clerk will give or send you a notice of the court hearing date, time, and location. You must give notice of this hearing to certain relatives of Respondent and other interested persons using form PG-115. If you do not give this notice, your petition may be delayed or your case dismissed (closed) by the court. Court forms are available online at <https://courts.alaska.gov/forms/index2.htm> or from your local court clerk.

Once you file the petition, the court will appoint:

- a court visitor to gather information about Respondent and provide a report to the court
- an expert (such as a doctor or psychologist) to provide information about Respondent's alleged incapacity
- a lawyer to represent Respondent (if Respondent has not already hired a lawyer)

The court provides resources to help you fill out this petition, learn about the court process, and prepare and serve as a guardian if you are appointed.

- Website: <https://courts.alaska.gov/shc/guardian-conservator/index.htm>
- Videos: The website above has links to 3 online videos to help you start the guardianship process. It is best to watch parts 1 and 2 before filing this petition. If you were not able to do this, you should still watch them before the court hearing. Also watch part 3 if you are asking to be the guardian. If you have limited or no internet connection, you can ask for a flashdrive of the video from your local court clerk or by calling the helpline (see below).
- Written Instructions: Read form PG-505 for more information about filling out this form and about the court hearing and court process. You can read these instructions online, pick up a paper copy in person from the court clerk, or ask the helpline staff to mail you a copy.
- Helpline: Call (907) 264-0520 for help over the phone. Staff can answer questions and mail you copies of any forms or instructions you need. Helpline hours: 8 AM to 5 PM, Monday through Thursday; and 8 AM to 12 Noon on Fridays.
