CASE NO. _____

EMERGENCY PETITION FOR APPOINTMENT OF A TEMPORARY GUARDIAN
(AS 13.26.301)

This form may be filed only if the [PG-100 or other petition for appointment of a guardian is also filed. More detailed instructions and information about the temporary guardianship procedure are in form PG-525.]

Before filling out this form, specify the reason that the respondent needs an emergency petition: The respondent needs services and cannot get the services on the respondent's own. The respondent needs these services immediately to protect the respondent from:
 serious injury  illness  disease.

Note: If the respondent does not meet the qualifications above, but you still believe the petition should be heard and decided more quickly than the standard 120 days, you may file form PG-108, Motion for Hearing on Shortened Time under Probate Rule 14.1.

1. Petitioner's Name _____ Age: _____

Certificate of Service

I certify that: [choose one]

- I am filing this emergency petition at the same time as the regular (non-emergency) petition for guardianship. I request that the court give a copy of this petition to the visitor for service on the respondent. I also request that the court include a copy of this emergency petition in the notice of hearing sent to the respondent's attorney, once appointed. [If you checked this box, skip to the signature at the bottom. You do not need to fill out the section below.]

- A regular (non-emergency) petition for guardianship was already filed, and the court already appointed a visitor and an attorney for the respondent. I gave (or tried to give) emergency notice as described below. [If you checked this box, complete the next section.]

For each person listed below, describe:

- 1) how you told (or tried to tell) the person that you planned to file this emergency petition (for example, a phone call, email, or in person); and
- 2) the date and time you communicated (or tried to communicate) with the person; and
- 3) whether you were able to give the person a copy of this emergency petition.
