 _____) CASE NO. _____
 Minor Ward)
 _____)

NOTICE OF REGISTRATION OF MINOR GUARDIANSHIP ORDER OF ANOTHER STATE OR COUNTRY

TO: _____

1. _____ [name of filer] registered a minor guardianship order on _____ [date].
 This order was originally issued by _____ [court name/location].
2. Copies of the registered order, letters of guardianship, and any modification orders are attached to this notice.
3. The registered order is enforceable in Alaska beginning on the date of registration (shown in section 1 above), the same as if the order were issued by a court of the State of Alaska.
4. You were listed as a party to the case and/or a person with rights to custody or visitation of the minor subject to the registered order. This means that you have the right to dispute whether the registered order is valid.
5. If you want to argue that the registered order is not valid, you must request a court hearing within 20 calendar days:
 - from the date this notice was mailed to you (the postmark date).
 - from the date this notice was personally served on you by certified mail or a process server.

To request a court hearing, complete the enclosed form called Request for Hearing about Registered Minor Guardianship Order (PG-692). This form is also available online at ak-courts.info/pg692.

Return the form to the superior court at:

Mailing Address: _____ or

Email Address: _____ or

File it in person at the physical court location listed at the top of this notice.

6. If you request a hearing, the court will let you know the date, time, and place of that hearing. This information will be sent to you by mail (or email, if you agree to email service) to the address you give to the court in the Request for Hearing (form PG-692). At the hearing, you must prove at least one of the four things listed below:
 - a. The court that issued the guardianship order did not have jurisdiction (authority) to decide this case, under laws substantially similar to AS 25.30.300 – 25.30.390.

- b. The guardianship order has been vacated (canceled or dismissed), stayed (put on hold), or modified (changed) by a court that had jurisdiction (authority) to do these things, under laws substantially similar to AS 25.30.300 – 25.30.390.
 - c. You were required to be notified about the guardianship case, but you did not get actual notice, and any attempts to give you notice were not reasonably likely to reach you.
 - d. You received notice that the guardianship case was happening, but the court did not give you a chance to be heard or to participate in the case.
7. If the Alaska court does not receive any documents challenging the validity of the registered order by the 20-day deadline, then the order will be automatically confirmed.
8. If the registered order is confirmed, either automatically or after a hearing, you will no longer be able to challenge the order using any of the arguments that you could have made now. For example, you would not be able to later argue that one of the things listed in section 6 is true.
